$4½ Million County Budget Proposed

Up $787,249; Includes
Mental Health, Salary
Hikes, Detention Home

A tentative Madison county budget totaling $4,507,075, an increase of $787,249 over that of last year, was proposed Wednesday afternoon by the finance committee of the Madison county board of supervisors.

The new budget, to be adopted at the Dec. 21 meeting of the board, is for an 11-month period ending Nov. 31, 1967, compared to a full 12 months during the current fiscal year ending Dec. 31.

The higher total includes two new special tax accounts approved by county voters in Nov. 8 general election. They are $276,099 for juvenile detention home purposes, for which a tax rate of 1.87 cents per $100 valuation was provided, and $138,340 for county mental health purposes, for which a tax rate of 10 cents per $100 valuation was provided.

Lower Tax Rate

The mental health appropriation will require a tax rate about the same as that for the detention home. It is the amount requested by the county mental health board.

Leslie Prehn, finance committee chairman, said the committee had no basis upon which to consider the financial needs of the county mental health clinic, and he added that he doubted if the county mental health board knew what it would do with the money.

A general salary increase averaging $25 per month for 220 county employees also is provided at a cost of $80,500 for the 11-month period.

A major increase in the budget is an appropriation for $610,000 in federal matching funds for county highway purposes, a special account now in its second year. Last year the county, through a special federal tax rate, provided $340,000 which was matched by federal funds and administered by the state highway division.

Staff Increases

Additional employees provided by the budget will increase the sheriff's staff by three deputies, raising the total to 18, an additional clerk for the probation office, a second assistant to the public defender, an investigator for the state's attorney's office, and a microfilm clerk for the office of the circuit clerk. An additional patrol car for the sheriff's staff also is provided.

Prehn noted that the quadrennial assessment of the county, coming up, and $72,000 has been set aside for publication of the new assessments.

The proposal sets aside $143,000 for dependent children. Prehn said that when he first served on the finance committee, the $9000 was appropriated for the purpose. But he said foster homes are having difficulty in

GC Post Office to Start Schedule For Yule Patrons

Extended lobby hours for the convenience of the patrons of the Granite City post office during the Christmas season were announced today by Postmaster W. T. Overbeek.

On weekdays beginning Monday the lobby will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. The regular hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Hours for the next two Saturdays, Dec. 10 and 17, will be 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on the next two Sundays, Dec. 11 and 18, the post office will be open for stamps and parcel post only from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Madison post office will maintain its regular hours of 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and 9:30 a.m. to noon on Saturdays except on Saturday, Dec. 17, when it will be open until 5 p.m.

The Venice post office will be open during its regular hours of 8:30 to 5 p.m., but will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 17, and from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 18.

Bartylak May Quit County Post Due to Illness

State's Atty. Joseph Bartylak is considering resigning his office because of ill health, it was reported this week.

He has been a patient in the Renard division of Barnes Hospital since Oct. 1 and this week told associates that he would continue to stay there until the possibility of continuing in office.

He was cited for contempt of court Monday afternoon by considering the financial needs of the county mental health clinic, and he added that he doubted if the county mental health board knew what it would do with the money.

A general salary increase averaging $25 per month for 220 county employees also is provided at a cost of $80,500 for the 11-month period.

Bonds Sold For Building In Venice Lee Park

$224,000 Structure
Will Include Offices
And Community Hall

The Venice park district board next week plans the execution and delivery of $224,000 in general obligation bonds to the First National Bank of Madison, purchaser. The bonds will finance construction and site acquisition of a park administration and community center building.

At a meeting Tuesday night, Marion Grosch, park superintendent, said construction cannot begin until final specifications and estimates are completed by Architect Virgil Dugleroff and until the purchase of the Miller Iron & Metal Co. yard, 321-23 Broadway, becomes final.

No date has been set for a call for construction.

Park Attorney Harry E. Hartman advised the commissioners to institute a comprehensive open space or beautification plan with other municipal agencies and interested civic organizations to qualify the district for federal funds in purchase of the yard. Other areas of the city could be affected in the future, he added.

Appoint Committee

William Ollendorf, board president, appointed John Mitchell, Peter Ponce and Grosch to contact city, school district and Lions Club officials to formulate a plan for the future.

Hartman said a plan for open space or beautification would not require technical services of experts.

Interest rates on the bonds will average 4.68%. The retirement schedule calls for rates of 4½% on $8000 on Nov. 1, 1967, $9000 in 1968, $10,000 each in 1969 and 1970, $11,000 a year in 1971 through 1973, $12,000 in 1974 and 1975 and $13,000 in 1976. Rates will be 4½% on $14,000 in 1977, $15,000 in 1978 through 1980, $17,000 in 1981 through 1983 and $19,000 in 1984.

The bond ordinance calls for a tax levy of 5.21 cents for the tax year of 1966, collectible in 1967 on assessed valuation totaling $44,885,894. This would produce $232,382 with full collection.

During the meeting, the board approved bills presented by Hartman totaling $7194, including $6100 for legal services.

The proposed structure, to be

Burglaries Net Thieves $400 in Cash, $1000 Loot

A burglary at Gardner's market, 2237 Illinois avenue, was discovered about 12:40 a.m. today by police, and the proprietor, Upton Gardner, estimated that 300 cartons of cigarettes worth $850 had been stolen.

Two pushcarts, which the thieves apparently used to haul the loot out of the store, were found in front of the building. A crowbar was used to pry open the front door.

Burglars broke in a rear door to gain entry yesterday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jobe, 222 Kerr street, Venice, from which they took $407 in cash and loot valued at more than $200.

Police said the house was ransacked thoroughly. Drawers were pulled out of dressers and chests and dumped on the beds or the floor.

The loot included $61 in $1 bills, certificate bills and $346 in $10 and $20 bills. Also missing are a new 12-gauge pump shotgun worth $118, a 13-caliber pistol and leather holster worth about $50, a 14-inch wheelbarrow worth $40 and 55 pens bearing an advertising motto.

A green piggy bank containing $9 is missing from the home of Robert Jarman, 2927 Circle drive. It was reported to police last night.

A 19-inch portable television set valued at $189 was stolen from the home of U. D. Wright, 2283 Grand avenue, between 4:30 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, he reported at 7:10 p.m.

Next Meeting Possibilities

The next regular meeting also promised a dispute over pay for aldermen missing more than two meetings a year and possibly the alderman's $30 monthly expense allowances. The council majority last week turned down Mayor Parnell's $282 expense bill for November, and the mayor in turn has refused to sign checks for the aldermen's November allowances.

Both sides are demanding details of the dispute over pay for aldermen. Several years ago, the legality of expense allowances was challenged, but no follow-up move was made by the challengers.

At Monday night's meeting, a letter from City Atty. Allen gave an opinion that absenteeism for shift work did not qualify an alderman for meeting pay under state statutes. He added that confirmation of his opinion was being sought from the Illinois Municipal League.

Several aldermen challenged the opinion. Boyd said he was certain the council had adopted a resolution two or three years ago permitting shift workers to draw their council meetings and still be paid provided they qualified for the alderman's allowance.

Many Shift Workers

He pointed out a number of aldermen are shift workers. Two shift notices were read at the start of Monday night's meeting from Aldermen Norn and Parmley, who were absent. Three other aldermen left the meeting shortly after 10 p.m.—Morrell, Sternberg and Paulos.

In a brief debate over Allen's letter, Alderman Whitmer said the $25 pay for three meetings a month did not include the numerous committee meetings and the duties in a ward. "The meetings are just a small part of what an alderman puts in," he added.

Allen said the letter had been sent to City Clerk Pendleton in error, and that he had proposed to wait until the opinion of the Illinois Municipal League had

Handicapped Work Center Featuring Holiday Items

Yule gift and accessory needs, for business next Monday, but are being offered by the Specialized Service Center, 2007 Madison avenue, where the items are made by handicapped workers.

The center will officially open

Christmas stockings, scented candles in containers and centerpieces made of split logs decorated with flocking that hold candles.

Prices range from 10 cents for a corsage to $3.98 for a circular Christmas tree skirt made of felt and trimmed in sequins. On the tree skirt is a hand painted Christmas scene.

Special Service, which is a non-profit organization, is open from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The center also offers ironing service.

Alderman Boyd again presented the two-scale proposal, which again was opposed by Personnel Committee Chairman Thompson, whose minority group had proposed a flat 4% increase, the same as given street department workers.

The council voted 7-to-4 for an ordinance to be prepared setting forth the $22.50-$12.50 increases for presentation at the next meeting, Dec. 19.

Venice Seeking Cut in Sewer Rental Charge

Final Yule Mail Call
Published Today

The final publication of the Press-Record's "Operation Yule Mail Call" appears in two parts in today's issue on page 25 and page 38. More than 525 names and addresses of Quad-City servicemen and women have appeared in 20 editions of the local newspaper.

Relatives and friends of servicemen overseas have until Saturday to send greeting cards and parcels via airmail rates for delivery prior to the holidays.

A surprise move in which Venice city officials requested the East Side Levee and Sanitary District to cut present sewer rental charges for Venice residents, and an apparent move to replace Lawrence Tolar as president of the district's board of trustees, highlighted yesterday's meeting of the levee board in East St. Louis.

A downward revision of the present schedule of sewer rental charges was sought by a delegation of Venice city officials, headed by Mayor John E. Lee, who also pointed out that the levee district has not fulfilled its agreement to install stormwater sewers in North Venice.

The action followed an unsuccessful attempt by William "Milt" Ebersoldt, Venice city clerk and a member of the levee board, to force reorganization of the board at yesterday's meeting.

The board, under Tolar's administration, has been reorganizing in its December meeting since last several years.

Ebersoldt's efforts, however, were blocked by a legal opinion by John Book, Belleville lawyer and associate of Levee Board Atty. John Sprague, who did not attend the meeting.

Report Tolar 'Out'

Efforts to reorganize the board yesterday reportedly involved an attempt to unseat Tolar as president and elect Ebersoldt in his place. The same effort is expected to be made in the January meeting.

Ebersoldt is scheduled for the presidency with the supporting vote of Joseph P. Grant of Granite City and George Duff of East St. Louis. On the five-man board, the vote combination of Ebersoldt, Grant and Duff would be sufficient to force Ebersoldt the post. The other two levee board members are Tolar and Morris Campbell, of East St. Louis.

As the meeting opened, Tolar called for routine business. Ebersoldt interrupted with the remark that the board, in past years, had been reorganizing in December.

"Am I in order to ask for reorganization now?" Ebersoldt asked.

If it's Legal

"You are if it's legal," Tolar replied.

Tolar led the board that "By Ordinance No. 1 of the levee district, the annual meeting of the district is not in December, but is to be held on the first Monday day after the first Monday of January at 9 a.m. Any action before that time would be improper."

Ebersoldt then pointed out that for "a number of years" the levee district board has been reorganizing in December.

"Were they wrong then?" Ebersoldt asked Book.

"They would have been if they had been challenged in any legal matters," Book said.

Tolar broke in at this point, noting—"Last year, not knowing for sure what the meeting date really was, we reorganized in December and then ratified the action in the January meeting."

Ebersoldt asked Book if the same procedure would be permissible if the board elected officers at that time (yesterday) it would have repeat in January in accordance with terms of the ordinance.

Proceedings Recorded

Ebersoldt remarked that he wanted the proceedings of the meeting made a part of the board's minutes. He turned to a note on the table, which had been placed there by the district officer and asked her if she was taking down the conversation. She replied that she was.

"The other words," Ebersoldt added, "you can do what you want as long as you aren't challenged."

Ebersoldt asked Harry Hartington to read the minutes.

United Fund Reports 99% of $367,000 Goal

The United Fund campaign for $367,000 is within a mere 1%—$3665—of reaching the goal, it was reported Tuesday afternoon during a meeting of the board of directors at the YMCA.

The 35 directors in attendance heard the report from Drive Chairman Carl Mathias, who said the final tally includes about $1259 in pledges yet to be obtained.

Mathias said the campaign report was being made so that allocations to the 23 United Fund agencies could be divided. He added that $363,397 is the final figure to date, contingent upon a decision by the board to divert $1500 of about $3000 interest due this year on campaign funds on deposit to the current drive.

The board gave its approval with the remainder of the interest to go into the United Fund contingent account.

Still Trying for Goal

Mathias and campaign co-chairman M. B. Milonski commented that while the final figure was being given, they are nominating committee named Tuesday afternoon. Named were Paul Lichtenberger, chairman, and Melvin Gillis, Leo Konzen, Ernest E. Veihl, E. F. Reiske and E. A. Karandjeff.

Added Fund Requests

Several requests for additional funds were submitted by agencies and were referred to Becker's committee for recommendation.

UF President Joseph Glik and the directors expressed their appreciation to Mathias and his staff for attaining the 99% mark and the largest amount of pledges in the history of the Tri-City Area United Fund.

Becker indicated the committee will meet after Jan. 1. The board of directors' next meeting will be in February at which time a report will be made by the nominating committee named Tuesday afternoon. Named were Paul Lichtenberger, chairman, and Melvin Gillis, Leo Konzen, Ernest E. Veihl, E. F. Reiske and E. A. Karandjeff.

Joint District Program Proposed To Get U.S. Funds

Venice school board members agreed Monday evening to continue a study of a proposed joint program with the Madison school administration whereby federal funds could be obtained by both school districts under the Title III program of federal education legislation.

Venice Supt. of Schools John O. Pier explained to the board that neither the Madison nor Venice school districts can qualify separately for federal assistance through Title III funding, due to population size.

"However," Pier said, "if we join forces with Madison in preparing a program paper, showing adequate justification for federal aid under Title III, I have been told that with our combined population figure we stand a good chance to become eligible for funds, through which we can expand the facilities and services now available to Venice school children."

Although the amount to be requested was not specified, he said he believes the Venice district would qualify for three portable structures, including a counseling facility, health center and a combination audio-visual aid center and library.

100% Federal Funds
Supt. Pier reported that all three portable buildings would be completely equipped with necessary furniture, fixtures, books, audio-visual equipment and accessories. He said the project would be 100% federally financed.

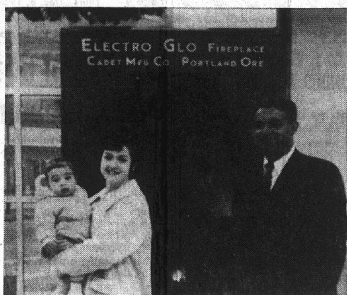

The school administrator commented that initially he had discussed joint action by the Madison and Venice school districts for the purposes of obtaining Title III funds, with Wenseson, late superintendent of Madison schools. Recently, Pier added, he continued the discussions with Acting Madison Supt. Raymond Drasich, who he said has shown willingness to cooperate in planning a joint program, providing approval is granted by the Madison board of education.

Pier pointed out that at a future date it may be possible to employ an audio-visual director to supervise this phase of the instructional program for both school districts, with each sharing the salary and operating costs.

May Seek Classroom
Should the Venice district qualify for Title III funds, he continued, a portable classroom also could be secured for approximately $7800.

Pier said that later this week he plans to confer with Southern Illinois University officials at Carbondale. They have agreed to assist the two districts in setting up a Title III program, he said. In other action, the board gave permission to use Lincoln school gymnasium for basketball practice to the Venice Athletic Club and the Tri-City Area Neighborhood Youth Corps. Each group is to use the gym one evening each week.

Legal school holidays this month were set by the board for

She received the free fireproof Monday. Her winning card, one of 7187 entries in the "Change Cold to Cozy" electric heating promotion was chosen by Kevin Braundmeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Braundmeier, 2228 Nevada avenue.

Tuesday, Dec. 27 through Friday, Dec. 30.

$62,975 Title I Application
Pier reported that a new budget will be submitted to state authorities this week for funds available to the school district under Title I of the U. E. Elementary and Secondary Education Act, amounting to $62,975.

A request for $1002 in federal funds under the Title II program also will be filed before Jan. 1, he said.

Recommendations made by the administrator were discussed, including purchase of a two-door refrigerator-freezer unit for Lincoln school.

Repair and replacement of equipment and fixtures in various school buildings, to be carried out during the Christmas vacation, was referred to the building committee.

Attendance Higher
Noting a new high attendance mark set by Lincoln kindergarten pupils, Pier said the class average attendance in November was 97.28%. Other attendance percentages for the past month were listed as: Venice kindergarten, 93.08%; Lincoln elementary, 93.79%; Venice elementary, 94.25%; and Venice high school, 92.79% for an overall percentage of 93.79%.

Balance in the restricted fund for November, with the amount turned over to School Treasurer Donald Phillips, was listed as $4435. The revolving fund balance was listed as $2285 and the activity fund showed a balance of $2522, with receipts in November totaling $2080 and disbursements of $762.

Bills approved for payment from the educational fund totaled $18,437, including such items as teacher retirement system, $273; withholding tax, $5583; life insurance annuities, $740; Frodo Dressel Corp., $608; Edroy Foods, $731; J. & J. Meat Co., $472; Harcourt, Brace & World, Inc., books, $1760; Illinois Power Co., $882; C. J. Schlosser & Co., $100; Title I audit, $225; Dr. J. C. Byers, $200, physician's fee; and Dr. John E. Lee, $200, dentist's fee.

Building fund expenses totaled $2603, including payments to Granite City Glass Co., $104; R. Drom Electrical Co., $208; Fijian-Maers Agency, boiler insurance, $212; and Venice Gas & Oil, $1210.

Payments from the transportation fund included $1706 to the Bi-State Transit System for school bus service in October and $270 for transportation of a Venice pupil to a special education school.

If you wish to be popular, can your troubles and preserve your good disposition.

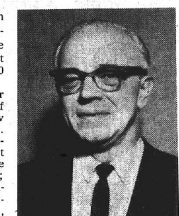

The personal equation seems to be that there's no better half.

Supt. Selection 'Most Important' Task

GC School Board to Confer With Screening Committee

"Selecting a new superintendent is probably the single most important decision a school board must make," in the view of the late Granite City School Supt. Russell D. Johnson. The Granite City board will come to grips with the task next Monday night, when it confers with a screening committee.

The screening process was set up by the board and Supt. Johnson in preparation for his retirement.

In detailed material prepared for the selection he commented that "choosing a school superintendent is somewhat like getting married. Many people are available, but only a few are the right ones for the specific job."

To aid in reaching the right decision, three out-of-town residents chosen by the Illinois Association of School Boards will examine transcripts of potential applicants and narrow them to ten or fewer. After that point is reached, the board will conduct interviews and evaluate the candidates.

Next Monday evening, the screening committee will come here to confer informally with the board, exchanging viewpoints on details of the assignment.

Timetable Planned
A timetable is to be drawn up for the screening committee, which will inform placement offices throughout the nation of the vacancy. Biographies will be sent to the Granite City school office, noted and forwarded to the committee, which will meet as a group to discuss the credentials received.

Names being recommended will be presented in alphabetical order during a later meeting of the committee and board. Board members will narrow the field further and then visit home communities of final contenders for the position.

Tentative plans call for all recommended candidates to be interviewed, with second interviews for those whose home cities are within 50 miles of Granite City. Wives of the candidates will accompany them on the second trip here.

Desired qualifications have been listed by the school district as including current employment as a school administrator, age 35-50, married and eligible for certification in Illinois. A doctorate degree is considered desirable but not essential.

Experience, Knowledge
Experience is to include ten or more years in public school work, service as a top administrative officer or assistant for at least five years, work as an administrator in a system enrolling at least 500 pupils, metropolitan area experience, understanding of vocational and adult education and federally-financed programs, community participation and negotiating experience.

Other points to be considered are breadth of training and experience, ability to communicate, business and curriculum experience, bond issue and construction experience, delegation of responsibility, ability to sit trivia, philosophy, public relations, membership in professional organizations and attitude toward extracurricular programs, including athletics.

Final question is: "Does he carry the ball or just catch it and pass on all decisions to the board?"

For the benefit of the screening committee, the Granite City district also has assembled information on the local community, the school system, present staff agreements, financial data and the organizational chart defining administrative responsibility.

Cars Collide in Madison
Cars driven by Ralph A. Williams, 616 Ashland avenue, Mitchell, and Robert Resinger, 117 Abbott street, Venice, were damaged at 6:25 a.m. today in the 1000 block of Alton avenue in Madison. Police reported both cars were headed west. The mishap occurred as Williams began making a left turn into a driveway.

Truck Hits Parked Car

A van-type truck operated by Leonard Dugan, 2218 Benton street, hit a parked car yesterday afternoon in the 1500 block of 24th street. The parked car belonged to Paul Stajler, 2208 Iowa street. Dugan was pulling away from the curb, police said.

Autos Collide

Involved in a collision Wednesday evening at Pontoon and Johnson roads were autos driven by Robert Langley, 2329 Ivy lane, who was going north and making a left turn, and Ann Hosson, 1737 Morone avenue, who was traveling west.

Two Traffic Charges

Johnnie Smith, 1112 Market street, was arrested Wednesday evening in the 1600 block of Madison avenue on charges of speeding and operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

$10,000 in Sewer Fees Now Overdue in Madison, Venice

Ben F. Day, administrator of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District sewage treatment program, told the levee board yesterday that Venice and Madison residents owe about $10,000 in delinquent sewer rental charges, and a like amount is overdue from St. Clair county sewer users.

Day revealed the delinquencies in asking the board for authority to send a letter to those who owe sewer fees informing them that his department can obtain liens against real estate to enforce payment and, if necessary, disconnect individual property sewer lines until back fees are paid.

Sewer fee collections have been under way only since midsummer, but payments date back to last April when fee collections became effective. While the sewage treatment plant is not yet complete, no operation in the amount of $1,250,000 under which the project was financed provided for beginning collections a year in advance of completion of the plant. This permits collection of funds necessary to meet the first payments on the bond issue, due early next year.

Day said that collections are running about 80% of the bills sent out, and said he thought letters sent to the delinquents would bring in a substantial amount of the money that is overdue. The board authorized Day to send the letters.

The board also approved a report by Levee Board Treasurer Thomas Stalcoff showing total receipts of $234,133 during November, including a $13,856 balance at the beginning of the month. Of the total, $216,947 represented St. Clair county sewer settlements.

Disbursements for November amounted to $108,473, leaving a

Dec. 1 balance of $45,659. Ben Campbell, chief clerk, said the district received early today another tax settlement of $127,000 in St. Clair county taxes. This should provide sufficient funds for normal operation during December and most of January, Campbell said.

The district will be able to supplement its funds through issuance of anticipated warrants in February, following adoption of budget and tax levy measures next month.

A November payroll amounting to $34,850, including approximately $5000 owed to members of the teamsters union in back pay, was approved, as were claims of $18,980. These payments were made out of the general fund.

Make Sewer Payments
Payments out of the special bond fund for the Landsowne sewage treatment program were made in the amount of $1,250,000 to Kewley Brothers Construction Co. of East St. Louis for work on the treatment plant, $880,000 to Horner & Shiffin for engineering services and $2385 to the Collinsville Construction Co. for labor and materials.

Also approved was payment of $1450 to the law firm of Sprague and Beck for legal services in connection with the Madison county law suit in which a $45,000 judgment was granted in favor of a youth who suffered injuries on levee district property.

William "Mike" Ebersoldt, member of the board, reported that the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. agreed in recent meeting to share the cost of reinforcing a sewer ground water inlet tunnels on the East St. Louis waterfront.

The work has been demanded by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, and is expected to cost about $100,000.

Drainage Project For Clark Avenue To Cost $14,666

Accepted by the Granite City council Monday night was a $14,666 bid by A. H. Seebold Co. for installation of a storm water drainage line to serve Clark avenue east of the drainage ditch.

The lone bid was submitted to the council without recommendation by the Street committee. Chairman Sternberg noted it was $739 lower than an earlier lone bid by Seebold that was rejected by the committee.

Eighth Ward Alderman Johnson called for acceptance of the bid, pointing out it was just a year ago that a resident at Franklin and Clark avenues put up a Santa Claus who was fishing in a pond in the street. "We don't want that Santa fishing in the lake again," he noted.

The bid was accepted with only two "yes" votes — by Sternberg and Whitmer.

South Nameoki Road
A full report on right-of-way acquisition for the South Nameoki road project was requested by Alderman Fry, Mayor Parney is to request the information from the state highway department.

Sternberg had earlier stated that the legal work toward removal of encroachments—a problem which stalled the North Nameoki road improvement project last year—should be started, and that the city should urge its appraiser and negotiator to push toward securing the right-of-way needed for South Nameoki road.

Purchase of a brush grinder for the tree cutting crew of the street department was approved. The only bid received was from O. B. Avery Co., St. Louis, with a $4075 figure reduced to $3667, since the grinder is a demonstrator model.

Miscellaneous Business
In miscellaneous business, the council authorized a call for bids for a dehumidifier for the evidence vault in the police department, where moisture is causing damage.

The city received a circuit court summons in a suit filed against the city by Mrs. Martha E. Hammel, 3024 Dale avenue, as a result of a traffic accident at 27th street and Madison avenue last April 14. Mrs. Hammel is seeking $876 for damage to her auto. She charges the city with negligence in not warning motorists the traffic signal was out of order.

Approved by the council was a bill for $801 to be paid to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers for maintenance of the city pumping station at the Army Depot.

The city was praised for its cooperation with the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Plan Commission in carrying out planning work for the area. Through funds provided by municipalities, the planning agency is able to acquire matching funds on the state and federal levels.

Charter members honored were Willie Payne, Oscar King, Hayes Gordon, Arthur Kyles, William Baucum and John Hamilton.

The program was arranged by Harold Summers of the Tri-City post, 22nd district commander. John E. Lee, post commander, conducted the meeting. 10 Radar Arrests by GC Police on Tuesday

Ten drivers were issued arrest tickets on speeding charges as traffic division police operated a radar unit along Madison avenue Tuesday. Summoned for hearings by Dec. 20 were:

William Wells, 732 East Chain of Rocks road; Hugh Polette, 2912 Dogwood drive; Cleo Wells, 716 Jefferson street, West Madison; Virginia L. Harrison, 5 Bradley avenue; Marion Ward Cornett, 1521 Cottage avenue.

Jerry E. Webb, 4512 Vine blvd.; John M. Adams, 3241 Philling road; Zena M. Scigliuzi, 2440 Hemlock street; David G. Gider, 2504 Prope avenue; and Deorah F. Colp, 4724 Vincent avenue. A similar charge was filed against Vicky L. Bogosian, 2909 Idaho avenue at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday in the 2290 block of Madison avenue.

Procedures Outlined for Handling Juvenile Matters

Procedures to be followed by police and truant officers in administration of the Juvenile Court Act were outlined at a conference held Monday night in the county courthouse.

The meeting was called at the request of James Reidelberger, chief probation officer of Madison county; Bruce Groshong, juvenile probation officer; and Wilbur Trimpe, county superintendent of schools.

In stipulated procedures for arresting police departments: The arresting officer will immediately take the juvenile to the juvenile police officer for interviewing and to determine if the juvenile is to be detained.

A juvenile offender will not be interviewed unless a juvenile police officer is present and all of the juvenile's rights are explained to him.

Detention of Juvenile

If a juvenile is detained, the arresting police department will, after the interview, take him immediately to the county jail, designated by the court as the reception facility for juvenile offenders.

At the earliest possible time the probation office will be notified that a juvenile offender has been delivered to the county jail. If the offender arrives at night, the arresting police department will notify the probation officer promptly the following morning.

The probation officer will file a petition in juvenile court, if the probation officer believes in further detention, and will notify the arresting police department of the time of the detention hearing.

Truant Officer Procedures

Under procedures for truant officers:

The truant officer or other school personnel will work with the alleged truant and family.

If the alleged truant doesn't return to school, the truant officer will send a statutory letter to the parents.

If the letter is not complied with, the truant officer will file a complaint in magistrate court against the parents.

If the youngster still does not return to school, the truant officer will file another complaint in magistrate court against the parents.

After complying with above procedures and the alleged truant has not returned to school, the school authorities will notify the probation office to institute proceedings. The school attorney will file the petition in juvenile court.

Face Prosecution

If the procedures are followed, parents of truant children will face prosecution in magistrate court and ultimately action at the circuit level by petition, if was pointed out.

The procedure upon arrest of a juvenile is designed to insure that the juvenile is taken immediately to a juvenile officer, who through experience in working with youngsters, would be better able to interview the offender.

Others attending the conference included Chief Judge Joseph J. Barr, I. H. Streeter III, presiding juvenile court judge; Leon Scroggins, acting state's attorney; Gerald J. McGovern, assistant state's attorney for juvenile matters; and school off-

Three-Day Deer Season to Open

Don Hastings, Madison county conservation officer, is reminding area hunters that deer season opens again tomorrow and closes at 4 p.m. Sunday.

During the three-day period, only deer may be hunted. Any one in the field without a deer permit, proper clothing and slug cartridges for their weapons will be in violation of state and county hunting statutes.

"Last year, particularly in the Chain of Rocks Canal area, there were quite a few violators," Hastings said. "If they're not hunting deer, they shouldn't be out," he added.

The fine for violators apprehended is $30, Hastings said.

Mentor vs. Mentor in Warrior-Kahok Contest

Sports writers often refer to a victories over Dupu and Mater team's coach as "mentor" in again this year.

Possibly after tomorrow night's basketball game here between Granite City and Collinsville, sports writers will be calling "mentor" and Kahok coach Virgil Fletcher the "mentor's mentor."

Sackett, who was instructed in the fundamentals of basketball by Fletcher as a Collinsville high school student, in his own record of coaching cage squads, has etched a record of similar prominence while at Granite City and other schools.

Sackett, who came to Granite City high school from Octavia high school, led the Warriors to a 15-12 season last year.

Outstanding Past Record
At Octavia, he had an 84-14 record in four seasons there, winning the Sangamon Valley Conference with 9-0 marks his last three years there and advancing high each year in post-season tournament play.

Fletcher has left his brand on Sackett in other ways than merely success. Both coaches believe in a deliberate style of basketball. They both emphasize a few basic patterns that are to be well-executed, rather than many that might not be learned as well. Both specialize in high-pressure defense, with constant harassing activity.

housing, clothing and feeding children at $70 per month, and orphanages who care for the unfortunate children are requesting more.

Minor increases are provided for several purposes, including Civil Defense and land use zoning.

The general fund budget will be out of balance by $100,000 to $110,000, according to Prehn and John Kraynak, county auditor. It totals $1,726,873, about $300 less than last year which covered a full 12 months.

Last year's budget was out of balance by about $88,000, but Kraynak said the county will wind up "in the black" because of additional income. However, more funds from excess fees were expected.

However, Kraynak said the county will have used about $100,000 from a $400,000 reserve fund by the end of the year.

General tax rate for 1967 will be only 8.67 cents, a lower rate than 20 or 30 years ago. He added that if all of the requests from county departments were approved, the budget would have been $100,000 more than the actual half million dollars.

He said the finance committee was approached by municipal agencies to provide for a county-wide reassessment by outside assessors, but he said it was not considered because of prohibitive costs. A half million dollars would not pay for it, he said.

Proposals to purchase another building for additional office space was not considered because funds are unavailable. Prehn said. He noted that insurance underwriters are calling for the rewriting of the county court-house, a project to cost in excess of $100,000, and the proposed budget includes $65,000 to finance part of the work.

Appropriations for general fund accounts include judiciary, $331,202; county penal expense, $129,472; county nursing home, home, $150,704; other welfare work, $145,350; administrative expense-court house, $197,722; administrative expense-other, $232,948; education expense, $29,047; miscellaneous, not otherwise classified, $260,527; and contingencies, $84,000.

Appropriations for special tax accounts include:

County tuberculosis sanatorium, $469,096; county highway fund, $484,500; county bridge fund, $487,000; county retirement fund, $170,000; outside independent county funds, $20,000; veterans assistance, $11,117; County Civil Defense, $53,974; Madison county museum, $91,500; manure and plating, $51,924; federal highway matching funds, $610,000; county mental health, $138,340; and detention home, $276,099, for a total of $2,780,201.

Herman Schroeder, and Claude Echols.

City chairmen are Robertson, Granite City: Thomas Staicoff, Pontoon Beach; Leo Schermer, Madison; Walter Simmons, Venice; George Warncke, Mitchell.

It was noted that schools and other agencies serving the public are required to make the quarterly payments.

Sister Thomas said the city should consider the great expense of the hospital's emergency room functions in serving the community as a city hospital for the city to cancel the $700 quarterly bill, the request from Sister Mary Thomas, hospital administrator, was referred to the Pollution committee. The bill is based on water consumption.

It was noted that schools and other agencies serving the public are required to make the quarterly payments.

amendments to the sewage treatment ordinance to dividers still is under way, Alderman Moellen reported. Under the system, the subdivided installed lines and receives 60% of the monthly fee.

Under study by the Sanitary committee, headed by Alderman Clyde Boyd is an economy move for the city insect spraying, and the committee says the administration with "giving way" a 50-gallon barrel of the spray chemical.

Lack of Cooperation Alderman R. E. Robertson, secretary of the Sanitary committee, read a report stating the committee was unable to get cooperation from the inspector's office in determining amounts of chemicals ordered and the amounts delivered to the city.

Alderman Claude Green displayed two photographs which he identified as being of a barrel of the city's insect spray that was found at a church camp grounds near Sunset Hill.

Mayor Parney commented after inspecting the pictures that he was unable to tell anything from them. Last spring, the same topic came before the council, Mayor Parney explained that it had been past practice for the city to send a sprayer to the camp grounds, but he had halted this.

Robertson contended that in early 1965, the city ordered a quantity of spray that was reportedly delivered in March, but that no records of its delivery could be located by the committee. Mayor Parney replied that all records were available on the delivery and delivery of the chemicals.

Further probing of the matter is expected.

Lost Items Displayed At GC Park Office

Articles of clothing, baseball gloves, wallets, a football helmet and a pair of glasses are in protective custody at the Granite City park district office, waiting to be claimed by small boys who left the items on park property in recent few months.

Parents of youngsters who have misplaced wearing apparel and equipment are invited to view the items at the park office between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. each weekday, Harold Brown, superintendent, said today.

Clothing includes lightweight windbreakers, quilted nylon jackets and sweaters, he said. A late summer drive resulted in many articles being claimed. Brown reported, adding the majority of items currently at the office were found since early September.

Auto Turns, Collides

While making a left turn onto Clark avenue off of Namekosti road, an auto driven by Thomas O. Burcham, 212 Briarwood, collided with another operated by Jerry E. Fuller, 1609 Minerva avenue, at 5:50 p.m. Tuesday. Burcham was charged with a right-of-way violation and was summoned for a hearing by Dec. 16.

Program Outlines Holiday Customs

In keeping with the season, a devotional service entitled "The Glory of Christmas" was given by Mrs. Shirley Glenn, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Kinney, Mrs. Mildred Fehling and Mrs. Eva Johannmeier with Mrs. Jackie Little at the piano Monday at the Christmas party at the Evening Guild of St. Peter United Church of Christ.

The program dealt with Christmas customs and traditions of other countries which have been handed down through the years.

The party took place at the church with 43 members and guests attending. The latter were Mrs. Robert Baumann, Mrs. Kenneth Hillmer, Mrs. Gloria Mason and Mrs. Ann Mason.

Mrs. Joyce Matson presided over a business session during which a number of Christmas contributions were made, including Back Bay Missions; the Hitz Memorial Home; Emmaus Home; Holyton Children's Home; Protestant Welfare for Christmas baskets; a Hong Kong orphan; the Salvation Army Tree of Lights; and the Dr. Biek Missionary Fund. In addition a gift was presented to the minister and candy was sent to the young men from the church in service.

The group planned to assist in the annual "hanging of the greens" ceremony at the church Sunday and to take part at the January meeting in a work night to be held on Wednesday, Jan. 4, instead of the regular meeting date.

After the business hour, entertainment was directed by Mrs. Rosalie Buente in a red and white Christmas setting. The red and white color scheme was carried out in the lighted tree and in the table appointments where Santa Claus favors were made of red and white net.

The refreshment committee consisted of Mrs. Alice Elledge, Mrs. Georgia Boettiger, Mrs. Arminda Lee, Mrs. Helen Hayes and Mrs. Freda Pufalt.

Sorority Unit Plans Yule Party

At Monday's meeting, the chapter took action on pledge applications. Mrs. Frances Harman won the evening's prize.

order, though papers allegedly were served upon him at the hospital by the sheriff's office.

Judge Streeter noted that Bartylak apparently had knowledge of his order of Nov. 14 directing that the state's attorney turn over the money.

The judge added that as far as the court is concerned, there will be no continuance in the case. "This is too serious a matter to be handled lightly."

The judge still is considering removing Leroy John Becker of Villa Grove, nephew of the late Collinsville resident, as administrator of the estate. Becker recently obtained another attorney to represent the estate.

American Steel Banquet for 260

Fifty-eight American Steel Foundries employees received engraved watches Tuesday evening marking completion of 25 years' service with the local plant. The watches were presented at the 23rd annual meeting and banquet of the ASF's 25-Year Club, held at the Madison Memorial Center.

More than 260 members attended, including special guests, Al Walcher of St. Louis, an 84-year-old former American Steel vice-president and his brother, Chester H. Walcher, also of St. Louis, a former works manager.

A. P. Steinhilber, works manager, officiated in the presentation ceremonies and introduced the new club members, whose enrollment increases the group's membership to 423, including 172 honorary members. The club was organized in 1941 with an initial enrollment of 131 members.

New officers elected in the business session, include Frank G. Durely, president and Sam Jenkins, vice-president. Re-elected as secretary was Mrs. Helen Gilligan. Durely succeeds Charles E. Rulleger, Granite City's club's top post.

There was Christmas music, and dinner was served by members of the Shrine 78 of the White Shrine of Jerusalem. Among those receiving watches were 13 Granite Citys, six residents of Madison and five Venice residents.

C. of C. Members to Strive For Medical School in Area

Representatives of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce will attend a special hearing Tuesday in Springfield relating to the establishment of a medical school in downstate Illinois.

Several local C. of C. members are planning to issue statements at the hearing in support of the Chamber's earlier recommendation, which prompted state authorities to consider feasibility of locating the medical school in this area.

Information on the Springfield meeting was included with several committee reports made Tuesday evening during the board's dinner meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Twenty-six board members and several guests attended, including Col. Charles E. Hosker, D. Karandjef, banker, president of the board. He presented a certificate of achievement by the U. S. Treasury Department, in recognition of 25 years' service as Madison county savings bonds chairman.

Before convening the business session, a moment of silence was observed in memory of the late Supt. of Schools Russell D. Johnson. His contributions to the community through the schools, civic organizations and other activities were noted by Chamber President Howard W. Kaseberg.

VENICE SEEKING Venice Seeking

man, Venice city attorney and also an attorney for the levee district, what he thought of the ruling. Hartman replied that Beck had "quoted the law in the district."

Ebersold said after the meeting that he is a candidate for the president job and said he has been pleased with the support of Grant and Duff. This would constitute a complete shift in the majority faction, and therefore control of the levee district board. Control of the levee board in past years has rested with members elected with the support of the East St. Louis Democratic political organization headed by East St. Louis Mayor Alvin G. Fields.

The president of the board receives a salary of $2000 per year and each of the other trustees receive $1000 per year.

Duff in Line
Several months ago, factional lines in the levee district organization were reported favoring a new president, a real time-honored political success predicted Duff would be the candidate for the chair with support from Chamber members, the president of the levee district board, Duff, it was said, thought that he should have had the presidency last year.

Ebersold is elected president in the January reorganization meeting, it will be one of the rare times that the post of president will go to a Madison county man. Although Madison county now is paying more than 40% of the costs of the levee district operation, it receives comparatively minor returns in the way of levee board services. Most of the patronage and influence goes to St. Clair county. Most of the major construction projects go to St. Clair county.

Following postponement of the reorganization until next month, the board completed routine business and then adjourned. There were no other business.

Dr. Lee, who was seated in the audience in company with Edward J. Jumeau, Venice consulting engineer, Walter "Buck" Simmons of Venice, chairman of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee, and Dr. Lee, told the board that he understood that "the stock yards" would be sold to join in the district sewage treatment system.

Asks About Rate Cut
"We would like to know," Dr. Lee asked the board, "if the addition of other areas in the sewage treatment system will mean a reduction in sewer rates for Venice residents."

Tolar replied that so far as he knew the understanding on rates would be a reduction if the city of Venice participates in the sewage disposal program.

"If more sewer users are coming into the system, why wouldn't it cut our rates?" Dr. Lee asked, noting that the current rental rates on costs of the sewage treatment system as apportioned among specified communities, which originally announced their intentions to participate in the program. "I don't think you planned on the stock yards area coming in when the agreements were made," the mayor said.

A. J. Kraemer, chief engineer of the levee district, told Mayor Lee, "The problem is, we don't know if we will have them three years or five years."

"Will the levee district see to it, after the systems is in operation, that reductions are made?" Jumeau said.

Too Early To Talk
Beck pointed out that since all monies collected, regardless of amount, must go into the bond principal and interest account, any buildup of bond payment reserves would result in an eventual reduction in rates.

"It is too early now to even talk about reductions in rates," Beck told Mayor Lee. Jumeau then pointed out that the original agreement signed by the city of Venice to participate in the sewage disposal program provided that the levee district would build stormwater sewers in North Venice.

"We would like to know the status of that part of the agreement," Jumeau said.

"That will depend on the Legislature," Tolar said. "We don't have the money for it now."

"We have to answer to our people," Jumeau responded, adding that "this (construction of stormwater sewers) was in our agreement when Venice decided to go along with the levee board program. It is the only reason Venice signed the agreement."

Venue and Madison both had plans of their own for sewage treatment plants but we agreed to go along with the levee district on a fee basis that would not exceed $1.25 per month. The cost is running a lot more than the people are complaining about it."

SIU Foundation Officer Addresses Rotarians

Col. Charles B. Schweizer, associate director of the Southern Illinois University Foundation, explained utilization of scholarship contributions and library gifts to SIU at yesterday's Madison Rotary luncheon.

The former Granite City Army Depot commandant discussed present and proposed facilities at the university campus, and tentative plans were made for the Rotarians to sponsor a book fair in February to aid the university. Mayor Stephen Maeras was program chairman.

Madison home Christmas lighting judging will take place Wednesday evening, Dec. 21, it was announced by the arrangements committee headed by Anthony Zedek. Committee Wayne Scanlon applied an officer nominating committee composed of Past Presidents William Mehl, Maeras, Frank Pian, Leo Schermer and Harry Thebaud.

FLIGHT HIGHLIGHTS CIVIL AIR PATROL WEEK
The Mounds Air Patrol Squadron completed its observation of National Civil Air Patrol Week. Activities included preparation of a window display, consisting of a replica of the Group 13 meeting place and a miniature scene of a ground rescue following an airplane crash on a mountain.

The week ended with an orientation flight in the Group 13 plane, which flew from Fostair Airport near Granite City. Pilot officer member, Frank McGonigal of Bunker Hill.

Present at the airport were senior members Master Sgt. Ed Jumeau, Master Sgt. Master Sgt. Dorothy Maly and Staff Sgt. Rosemary Hindricks. Cadets participating were Master Sgt. Joseph Maly, Master Sgt. Wayne Maly, Staff Sgt. Geraldine Hindricks, Cadet-Three Robert J. Hindricks, Cadet-Base Geraldine Hindricks, Cadet-Base Francis Hindricks, and Francis Hindricks, mascot.

After the flight, the group processed a quadron, and the Grand Marquis State Park for an anniversary party. They were joined there by the Granite City section.

Attending from Granite City were Warrant Officer Betty Purcell, Cadet Capt. Don Graville, Cadet Capt. Sally Graville, C-3 Paul Petter, C-3 Mike Werber, C-3 Dennis Beaver, C-3 Mike Faulkner, C-3 Bill Purcell and C-3 Linda Faulkner.

Refreshments were served and Wayne Maly played the accordion as the gathering sang and danced.

signed to that effect," Kraemer replied.

Mayor Lee then suggested that the levee district produce the agreements that had been signed that copies be sent to Venice officials and "that then we will see where we go from there."

Jumeau said Venice—as well as following the meeting that while the levee district sewer rate is listed at $1.15 per month, as a minimum, the water consumption basis on which the bills are figured is such that most sewer users are paying more than the minimum of $1.15 per month listed by the levee board, and more than $1.25 per month as agreed upon by the city of Venice as a sewer rate fee.

Jumeau said Venice—as well as Madison—signed the agreement to participate in the levee district program on the basis of a rate of $1.15 per month. "It is running more than that," Jumeau said.

He told the levee board that Venice rates are running much higher than the Granite City rate of $2.70 per quarter, and "we are getting a lot of complaints from the people."

Contentment may be a virtue, but it's death to enterprise.

MORE ABOUT City Pay

been received before making the presentation to the council.

The council voted 9-0 to not receive the letter.

Late in Meeting
The vote for preparation of the city hall employees wage increase ordinance was late in the meeting when only 11 aldermen were present. It was 7-4, with Basarick, Bartoski, Johnson, Boyd, Dallas, Robertson and Ruddleger, Schamer, Thompson and Fry opposed.

Fry said the proposal was virtually the same as the earlier recommendations of $26-$30 and $24-$31 by the majority group and that the top amount was for employees "who get along" with the council majority.

Thompson objected, saying the different rates created discrimination and were unjust, especially since the city hall employees had agreed on a 4% increase last summer.

Mayor Parney commented that he hated to see the council take away the job of a committee that had done "a fine job."

MORE ABOUT University Conference

Thomas Noon, Granite City high school assistant principal, represented the Granite City school district at a School-University Articulation Conference Tuesday and Wednesday of the University of Illinois, Urbana.

Topics included college admission policies and academic advising for freshmen students. Interviews were held yesterday morning with former GCHS students, now at Urbana, on their problems and successes in bridging the gap between high school and university instruction.

Those proposed for the higher amount are hired through Personnel committee testing and in-house committee secretaries, clerks and typists.

Monday night's session was relatively calm and ended at 10:30. There was no report from the Special Sewer committee, which brought forth heated arguments last week.

Also, the mayor has not yet given any indication of his appointment for the job of police chief will be vacated Jan. 1, when Chief Willard retires and joins the county sheriff's department as the Quad-City area deputy.

MORE ABOUT United Fund

were unlikely since the campaign goal was not reached.

Among the requests was $2200 sought by the Tri-City Chamber, American Red Cross for Operation Christmas, and $1000 for the recently inaugurated Blood Bank program.

The River Bluffs Girl Scouts, indicated it expects a deficit of $3000 this year and may request extra financial help.

Mrs. George Eubanks, president of the council said in a sustaining member drive is to be conducted in the Belleville area. The council's fiscal year allocation is $11,000. For the local area, the Girl Scout allocation is $19,000.

Rejected by the board was a request from the Metropolitan St. Louis Hospital Planning Commission for an allocation of $760 for 1967, have Tennessee, the St. Elizabeth Hospital in its bid for federal modernization and expansion funds and for miscellaneous services to the community.

The directors instructed John Seibenberger, executive director, to advise the commission to re-submit its application next spring for reconsideration.

In other action, the board authorized a change in firms to provide a retirement program for two United Fund office salaries. Seibenberger and Robert McCormick, who is in charge of community services.

The action was taken at the request of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council. The earlier authorization was for the National Health, Welfare and Retirement Plan, but when 75% participation was not possible, the firm turned down the staff office. Thereafter three fulltime employees in the office.

The new program will be with the Aetna Co. and the two staffers will pay 2% of their salaries to the fund and the United Fund will pay a 5% figure.

People who fear censure very seldom rise above criticism.

The right kind of experience is sometimes worth the cost.

Final Payment On Sewer Plant Now Under Study

Final payment of $6761 due on the city sewage treatment plant at the Army Depot was under study by the Granite City council Monday night, pending further study by the Pollution committee.

Alderman Charles Moerlen, chairman, said the committee wants further meetings with the contractor, Nelson Construction Co., St. Louis, and the engineer, Edward Juneau of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab before accepting the plant.

An open house for the public is to be arranged for the near future. The plant has been in operation since July 11.

A letter was read to the council from the engineer recommending payment of all but $1200 to the contractor and acceptance of the plant so the city could receive final payment of its federal grant. The amount due from the grant is $122,000. The total cost of the plant construction was $1,289,321.

Federal Requirements
Juneau pointed out the plant had been inspected Aug. 29 by a representative of the U. S. Department of Public Health and that all was in order, except for the city's need to submit invoices on the purchase of sludge trucks and a copy of an apprentice permit for a sheetmetal worker, as required by federal law.

The city also is to provide the federal government with details on its controls of industrial wastes flowing through the sewer system.

Moerlen said the Operating Engineers Union has requested several safety measures to be taken at the treatment plant. Additional lighting is needed in the bar screen building and at the grit chamber. He added that only one man is on duty during night hours and must do considerable climbing.

As a precaution, the operator is to make scheduled telephone calls to the police department, and if no call is received, police are to dispatch a patrolman to the plant. "We need to do this in case a man falls and kills himself out," Moerlen explained.

Costs Being Cut
The chairman also submitted a report from the treatment plant superintendent, John J. Hildebrandt, who reported a cost cut in operational expenses.

The superintendent reported that in November with 22 days of filtering, 1874 tons of sludge cake were removed with the average cost of $1.56 per day for Ferric Chloride and $35.63 for lime.

He said plant effluent to the river was kept within the directives of the state Sanitary Water Board.

"I propose the purchase of equipment for greasing and for oil changes for our vehicles to cut down the cost of maintenance. Our men are able to do an efficient job without going to any service station. At present, we are using premium gasoline. It would be less expensive to install a gas pump at the plant and use regular gas," Hildebrandt advised the council.

Methodist District Meeting Being Held Here Today

The district conference of the East St. Louis district of The Methodist Church is being held today at Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church. Ministers and representative laymen from the 59 churches of the District will be in attendance.

The conference is held under the direction of the Rev. Jack D. Travelstead, district superintendent, whose offices are in Lebanon. He formerly was pastor of the Venice Methodist Church.

The conference opened with a devotional period at 9 a.m. led by the Rev. Gary Scheller, pastor of the Wanda Methodist Church. In addition to the routine business of the district, a special presentation and discussion on the subject of church growth in the metropolitan area is being led by Dr. Richard Myers of Indianapolis.

The meeting is being held throughout the day, and will conclude with an evening session at 7 o'clock. A special feature of the evening session will be the singing of an anthem by the District Ministers' Wives chorus.

'Trim the Tree' Party Planned at Church

The annual "Trim-the-Tree" party will be held in Wesley Hall of Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church Sunday from 2 until 5 p.m. This event is sponsored by the Commission on Education, and provides an opportunity for families to work together to make ornaments for the Sanctuary tree, and for their own family use.

Following the afternoon of creative fellowship, a Vesper Service will be held in the Sanctuary at 5 p.m. At this time, a special program, "A Christmas Tree Festival" will be presented by the Commission on Education under the direction of its chairman, Mrs. Adelbert Ambuehl Jr. Children of the fifth and sixth grades will be featured in the choral reading of Holy Scripture. As a part of this special service, each family will have an opportunity to hang ornaments which they have made for use on the Sanctuary tree.

Other activities of this third Sunday in Advent will include the regular evening worship service at 8:30 and 10:40 at which time the minister, the Rev. R. Paul Sims, will preach on the subject, "The Star of Guidance." The Church School hour will be held at 9:30 with classes for all ages. Because of the special Vesper Service, the regular evening worship service will not be held.

In the court of public opinion, it's only natural that a man should decide in his favor.

Growth Stocks Vs. Income Stocks

By THOMAS E. O'HARA
Chairman, Board of Trustees,
National Association of Investment Clubs

I am sending a copy of a magazine article. The author cites income stocks that outperform growth stocks and concludes, as you will see, is that one should ignore growth stocks in favor of income. Since you emphasize growth-stock, I was chagrined to find that you have to say to this.

The author includes in his list of "income stocks" a good many securities I would regard as growth stocks.

To be sure, brokers, investment counselors and all sorts of "authorities" on stocks seldom agree with us as precisely where to draw the line. One man's list of growth stocks inevitably includes securities that another would consider income stocks and vice versa.

period of time tend to increase their dividends faster and eventually actually pay higher income than a group of income stocks starting from the same period. I still believe that genuine growth stocks are a better buy in the long run.

Optimistic Salesman
Q. We invested $15,000 four years ago with a mutual fund. In five years and in 10 years it's worth $18,700. Now it's worth $15,547. When he sold it to us, the salesman assured us it would double in five years and in 10 years I mentioned this to him, he acted as if he didn't remember saying it. Should we withdraw from the fund, pay off debts of about $6,000 and put the rest in savings at 4 1/2 per cent?

A. Your salesman's memory is probably no more faulty than that of a great many other salesmen. Salesmen are naturally an enthusiastic group.

I wonder if you checked his claim to see if the fund actually doubled in the five years before you bought.

I might point out that you paid 8% in commissions to get into the fund, so the original investment you had working for you was $13,000 rather than $15,000. The growth-stock fund made 10% at $18,700 but had a 50% appreciation in the five years. The income fund made 4% at $15,547 but had a 33% appreciation in the five years.

U. S. Among Major Debtor Nations

Washington, Mo., Missouri

We are constantly being more and more impressed with the stand that Sen. Stuart Symington is taking in national and international affairs. In our opinion he is taking a sound, common-sense and down-to-earth approach to these troublesome problems.

This doesn't mean that he hasn't always taken such an approach. We think he has. His recent record couple of years ago proves that the great majority of Missourians think so, too. Senator Symington stated on the Senate floor that since 1945 the United States has "expended an average of over $8 billion every year for foreign aid and military support payments. The purpose of this was to make the forces of freedom stronger around the world."

In 1965, for example, Sen. Symington reminded his colleagues in the Senate, "our total government payments abroad were $8.5 billion, including $4.1 billion for foreign economic aid and $2.8 billion in offshore military expenditures, plus $1.4 billion in service payments. He mentioned that this country since 1947 has been carrying the major burden in defense of the free world. He cited figures given a short time ago by Gen. Lemnitzer to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

These figures show that the United States has been spending annually for defense close to 10 per cent of its gross national product. This compares to 5 per cent for France, 5 per cent by England, 4.5 per cent by Germany and Holland and 3.5 per cent by the Soviet Union.

Science and the Quod-Cities

Scientists, like the masters of great wine cellars, may soon find themselves routinely approaching vintage racks, selecting a few bottles, and pouring a nice, tall "laser."

With scarcely more fuss in preparation, General Telephone & Electronics Laboratories scientists Adam Heller and Adam Lempiak have come up with a highly successful liquid laser. The device, which emits invisible infrared light in a very intense laser-narrow beam, is literally poured together in a few minutes.

In the first liquid laser developed at GTE & E's Yonkers, N. Y., laboratories three years ago, an "organic" laser fluid was used. While it showed that the liquid was indeed possible in fluids, the device's performance was disappointing.

In the new laser, only the "inorganic" laser fluid has improved the key to high-energy performance.

New Federal Programs Viewed as Improving Quality of Education

To the Editor:

Like Medicare, federal aid to education kicked around Congress for years, from one state to another. The 89th Congress broke the stalemate.

The immediate result was the most significant and far-reaching education bill ever enacted in this country. The long-range result will be quality education for every American child, regardless of his neighborhood or economic background.

The need for the legislation had been glaring for years. Schools were becoming more crowded and less able to provide first-grade education, particularly in cities and particularly in low-income areas.

Young people were dropping out of school each year, equipped for good employment. Joblessness among young people was only an eighth grade education. In some areas, the average jobs for those with less than a complete high school education were driving up at a rate of 10% in a decade.

The sweeping programs enacted by the 89th Congress will reach into every corner of the American education system, paving the way for more and better education—not just for children of the poor but for all children. In a sense, these programs constitute a scholarship for every school boy or girl, letting them go as far as their ability will take them.

The programs are something new in America and are something that will pay dividends for generations to come. The 89th Congress made them possible.

cent for Belgium and Italy.

Germany, which profited more than any other country from these expenditures, carried on a small part of the financial burden to protect its borders.

That could be one of the reasons why Germany has prospered so much more than the others. It's easy to move ahead when somebody moves the way for you. In the meantime, Sen. Symington pointed out, the United States has become one of the major debtor nations, owing more than $28 billion dollars in legal liabilities in foreign nations. He added that our gold stock today stands at less than $16 billion.

He said figures show a balance of payments deficit of $582 million for the first quarter this year. At this rate, the deficit this year will be $2.4 billion, as compared to a deficit of $1.3 billion last year.

What this means is that the government is spending that much more than it is taking in.

Senator Symington said the United States continues "to spend $15 billion a year in Europe for military presence alone, at the same time it continues to lose a substantial portion of its gold to that same Europe."

In closing his statement, Senator Symington asked the same question that has been going through the minds of many of us.

"One has the right to ask, how can this go on without a reckoning?"

How long, indeed? Are we the sole guardians of the world's freedom? It appears we are.

SIU Prof Developing 'Project Mole' Machine

The great garage of modern technology includes vehicles that can fly in space, swim underwater and crawl, climb and clamber over every conceivable kind of surface terrain.

Now the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers is trying to come up with one that will spill rock to tunnel along its own roadway deep inside the earth.

The man who has been assigned to determine the feasibility of such a vehicle—a job that might be called "Project Mole"—is an engineering professor at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, Eldred Hough. To solve it, he has tuned to down-earth principles of hydraulic fracturing, a technique discovered 17 years ago to boost the productivity of oil wells.

Under a $40,000 research grant from the corps, Hough has been brainstorming the subterranean sedan idea for the past six months. He thinks that in another six months he'll know if it is possible.

Monticello Doll Dinner To Be Held on Friday

A traditional Christmas event which had its beginning 80 years ago, will be observed again Friday evening on the Monticello College campus at Godfrey.

Over 350 guests are expected at the College's annual doll dinner. The event derives its name from the collection of dolls gathered each year by the students, staff, faculty, alumnae and friends of the college to distribute locally to needy children as Christmas gifts.

The dolls, expected to number over 400 this year, are presented to several Alton area organizations following their exhibit in the college library immediately after the doll dinner.

Several of the dolls are handmade and prepared months in advance of the annual event. Prizes are awarded the contributors for the funniest, most original, best handmade and prettiest.

November Births Drop 25% Deathrate is Unchanged

Only 61 births were reported in the Quad-City area during November, a drop of 21 below the October total, according to a report by City Clerk Homer Pendleton.

The 61 births last month was 36 less than the 97 occurring in November 1965, while the 39 deaths last month was an increase of 13 over the 23 reported in November last year.

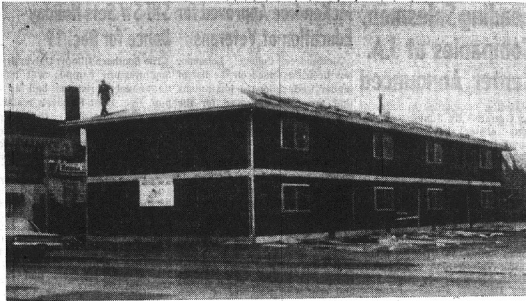

November statistics compiled by Pendleton increased to 831 the total number of births reported in the Quad-City area during the 11 months of this year, compared to 968 reported for the same period of 1965.

The 483 deaths for the 11-month period this year, however, is an increase of 22 over the 381 recorded for the same period of 1965. A total of only five stillbirths have been reported so far this year, compared to 17 at the same time last year.

Revenue, Succession Bills Lost, Banking Act Approved, State Vote Canvass Shows

The proposed constitutional amendment to the Illinois Revenue Code and its accompanying proposition for succession in office by county treasurers and sheriffs were defeated soundly in the Nov. 8 general election, according to final canvassed election returns announced this week by Secretary of State Paul P. Fry.

In the state as a whole the revenue code amendment received only 1,642,549 yes votes out of 3,076,879 votes cast on the proposal. The no vote totaled 1,434,330. The proposal therefore failed to receive either a majority of the total vote cast, which totaled 3,928,478, or two-thirds of the vote cast on the proposal.

Out of the total vote cast of 3,928,478, the proposed amendment to permit treasurers and sheriffs to succeed themselves in office received 3,076,879 votes, of which 1,808,491 were yes votes and 1,247,248 were no votes. Like the revenue article amendment, the proposal also required a majority of the total vote cast or two-thirds majority of the vote cast on the proposal.

The proposal for amendment of the Illinois Banking Act carried, however, by a plurality of 561,243 votes. A total of 1,564,746 votes were cast in favor of the proposition and 811,561 were cast against it. The Banking Act amendment required only a simple majority for passage.

Douglas Won Nine Counties
Canvass of the vote cast for U. S. Senator in the general election showed that Charles H. Percy, Republican victor in the Senate race, polled 2,100,449 in all 102 counties of Illinois to defeat his Democratic opponent, Donald M. Pritzke, by U. S. Senator Paul H. Douglas, a plurality of 288,912 votes.

Perce polled a total vote of 1,302. Douglas polled 1,013,147 votes to carry only nine counties. A breakdown of the vote for Percy showed that he won handily by a plurality in the 300,000 range. Cook county was his largest vote-getter. He received 983,311; Ralph C. Hahn, 1,560,089 in the 101 downstate counties. Douglas received 733,909 downstate to 1,074,437 for Percy. In Cook county, Douglas polled 944,538 votes, compared to 1,026,538 for Percy.

Ray Page, Republican candidate for state superintendent of education, was there until 1948 when he was elected to the Senate.

At the state treasurer's race, Adlai Stevenson III, Democrat, won by the slim plurality of 39,655, receiving a total of 1,889, year career in the U. S. Senate. 995 votes in all 102 counties, compared to 1,849,940 for his Republican opponent Harris Rowe. Oddly enough, Stevenson carried only 35 counties while Rowe carried 69, but the pluralities in the larger counties carried by Stevenson were sufficient to give him a majority of the vote.

Jr. Red Cross Assisting With 'Talking Letters'

Eight members of the Red Cross Youth Club at Granite City high school are assisting in the "Christmas Talking Letter" program at the downtown Red Cross office, 1411 Twenty-first street.

They are working in two shifts, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 1 to 5:30 p.m. on Saturdays, greeting visitors as they enter, setting up the recorder and informing persons of the amount of postage required to mail the letters.

The members are Carol Harris, Marilyn Clanton, Phyllis Stone, Barb Goleman, Dortha Pascoe, Virginia Roseman, Paula Walton and Rita Wallace.

Entertain at Hospital

The club and others from the school recently entertained patients at Alton State Hospital. Highlights included a duet by Linda Thomas and Duwayne Orenda portraying hillbillies and singing selections which included "Mountain Dew" and an exaggerated "fashion show" narrated by Barb Goleman.

They sang Christmas carols with the patients, and following the entertainment, refreshments brought by the members were served.

The club is planning to return to the hospital before Christmas to hold a party for the same patients.

Small gifts will be presented, and an entertainment schedule of various skits is being planned.

Christmas Baskets

Club members are preparing to assist the Student Council in its drive for Christmas baskets from the high school by collecting toys. The club has sent Christmas cards to servicemen and women.

whose name appeared in the school's "Yule Mail Call" list.

Other plans for the Christmas holiday include sending toys to the Scott Air Force Base Hospital and a party for members at the home of Carol Harris, club president.

YMCA to Conduct World Service Drive Saturday

The YMCA will conduct its annual World Service campaign on Saturday, Mrs. Marty Herman of the "Y" Teen Town announced today.

The local "Y" has set a goal of $1000 for 1967, and the campaign will be conducted by members of 14 Tri-Hi-Y clubs who will be selling boxes of miniature Heath candles from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

YMCA's throughout the United States and Canada have set a record goal of $2,735,901 for the World Service program to aid "Y's" in 49 of the 83 countries in which "Y's" are operating, Mrs. Hartman said.

She said that World Service helps "Y's" overseas in several ways. Skilled North American men are sent overseas as fraternal secretaries, some as technical experts to help launch new YMCA's.

Others go on specialized assignments, working in fields where local leadership has not been developed, as in boys work, physical education and work with students.

The new World Service budget calls for deployment of 59 North American fraternal secretaries in 34 countries, Mrs. Herman said. In addition, 10 student workers will serve overseas on one or two-year assignments. They received $50 per month plus room, board and transportation.

Not all World Service money is spent overseas directly, Mrs. Herman said. Support is provided for the International Student Service which helps thousands of foreign students to adjust to life in North America each year.

Through a Fellowship Exchange program, overseas "Y" leaders are trained in YMCA colleges and in local YMCA's here. World Service funds also help with international camper exchanges and international work camps.

In 1967, World Service plans to seek support for 100 projects in 31 countries to "help people help themselves."

Census Bureau Seeks Data on Farm Workers

A sample survey of those who performed farm work for cash in 1966 will be conducted in this area during December as a part of the Census Bureau's monthly Current Population Survey, according to Theodore F. Olson, director of the Bureau's regional office in Chicago.

A section of the survey form is to be filled for those who did any farm work at all in 1966. The information, obtained annually for use of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will supplement the regular monthly employment inquiries conducted by the Census Bureau to furnish facts for the Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

All information is kept completely confidential and is used only for statistical purposes.

The survey will be made during the week beginning December 12 among sample households in this area and in other selected areas throughout the United States.

City Redistricting Committee Ready To Start on Task

With the naming of the seventh member to the Special City Redistricting committee, Alderman Paul Rutledge, chairman, reported to the Granite City council Monday night that the committee is "ready to roll" and will probably meet next Monday evening. The seven-member committee has the responsibility of redistricting the city in an effort to equalize population within the eight wards and to eliminate any split of precincts by ward lines.

Named to the committee Monday night by Mayor Partney was Alderman Samuel Whitmer of the Second Ward, who replaces Alderman Edmund Barosiak, also of the Second Ward, who declined to serve because of the time he is spending as a member of the Special Sewer committee and as chairman of the City Buildings committee.

Other members of the special redistricting group are Aldermen William Dallas of the First Ward, Clyde Boyd of the Third Ward, Ward, G. H. Sternberg of the Seventh Ward and Ford Johnson of the Eighth Ward.

Rutledge reported he has distributed to committee members and the deadline for redistricting data supplied to the city by is February.

"I urge all the members to study the maps and to have proposals ready for next week's committee meeting so we can make a presentation to the council as soon as possible."

The intent has been to redistrict the city prior to next April's city election. The filing period for candidates opens next month, and the deadline for redistricting is February.

Police Buy Ample Supply of Aspirin

An $11.80 bill for aspirin tablets and bandages for the police department was questioned during Monday night's Granite City council meeting by Alderman Roy Paulos. "That's a lot of aspirin," Paulos commented. The mayor and other aldermen pointed out there are a "lot of headaches in the police department" and noted the bill submitted by Miller's Drug store included purchases on June 20, July 26, Oct. 22 and Nov. 25.

When retiring Police Chief Willard agreed that police- men are plagued with many headaches, Paulos withdrew his objection.

Attorney General Not To Act in Annexation Suit

The Illinois Attorney General's office has notified the Nameoki township board that it will not institute quo warranto proceedings for the township against Granite City in an effort to nullify Granite City's annexation of the Grigsby junior high school site, the town board was informed in regular meeting Monday night.

Nick Vasiloff, township attorney, said he was informed by the attorney general's office that its duties were limited to those involving the state as a whole, while the Nameoki township matter was a local affair. Vasiloff said the possibility of the proceedings being filed for Nameoki township by the Madison county state's attorney's office is being studied by Leon Scroggins, acting state's attorney.

Harry Briggs, Nameoki township supervisor, said that if the state's attorney's office fails to act in the matter by the time of the next Nameoki township board meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 20, the township will act on its own behalf.

Nameoki township is challenging legality of annexation proceedings approved by the Granite City council in which it annexed the 20-acre junior high school site and a section of Pontoon road leading to the site. Township officials maintain the section of road was annexed to give Granite City contingency to the school site so that it could be annexed without referendum. Granite City's right to annex any part of a road or highway is the primary basis of the challenge.

To Grant Committee Authority

Briggs indicated that the township plans to approve resolutions authorizing the special citizens sewer committee to negotiate with federal agencies to determine the extent of federal money available for construction of a sewer system and treatment plant, but the action was delayed Monday night. Vasiloff said the resolution would be prepared for introduction in the next meeting.

Board Member William Schreiber asked the town board and Charles Hanks, township highway commissioner, to initiate action with the Illinois State Highway Department district office at French Village for installation of electric traffic signals on McCambridge avenue. Schreiber said the volume of traffic along McCambridge avenue, particularly during peak periods, is making it difficult for traffic from side streets to enter traffic lanes or get across the highway.

The board approved the purchase of a new highway department truck with snow blade attachment from B. E. Hohl of Granite City on a net bid of $3910, the lowest of four offers. Other bids were Mathews Chevrolet, $3936; Farrington Motors,

Safety Tips Given by Society For Prevention of Blindness

Pfc Charles Ahlers Assigned to Vietnam

Pfc Charles H. Ahlers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Murray Ahlers, 4108 Maryville Road, has been assigned to an Army unit in Vietnam after graduating from the radar and missile school at Fort Sill, Okla.

Before going to Fort Sill, he received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood Mo., and spent a short time at Fort Eustis, Va. He entered the service in April.

It is estimated that several hundred American children will suffer needless eye accidents during the coming holiday season due to potentially dangerous toys and Christmas tree hazards and that some will become blinded, reports the Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Inc.

In the Safe Toy Campaign, the society warns parents that 17% of the more serious injuries to children's eyes are caused by missile-type toys such as pellet guns, dart guns, air guns, bean shooters and many toys with rubber bands such as sling shots. Cited is a recent case of a four-year-old boy who was accidentally struck in the eye by a plastic whirling helicopter launched at close range with a rubber band causing an eye injury which could result in blindness. Parents also are advised against buying "seemingly harmless" toys having protruding points, sharp edges, detachable parts or those made with flammable or plastic materials that shatter. Last month President Johnson signed "Child Protection" legislation which includes banning the sale of children's toys containing hazardous substances.

Other Suggestions

As part of its seasonal Safe Toy Campaign, the Society recommends that: Christmas trees, not made fireproof by approved chemical sprays, should be kept in water to prevent drying and causing fire.

Christmas trees should be kept away from heated radiators or fireplaces.

All electrical wiring should be double-checked for short circuits that can cause sparks and flames.

Lit candles should never be used on the Christmas tree and all tree decorations should be unbreakable and nonflammable.

The Society emphasizes that good eye safety habits and attitudes should be practiced in the home not only at Christmas time but all year round. Aerosol spray cans containing many different pressurized liquids such as insecticides, deodorants, antibiotics, oven cleaners, paint, and hair fixatives, should be kept out of reach of children at all times.

It has been recently found that these liquids, if accidentally sprayed into the eye, can cause severe corneal damage.

The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Inc., founded in 1908, is the oldest voluntary health agency nationally engaged in the prevention of blindness through a comprehensive program of community services, public and professional education and research.

Christmas Program Deadline Tomorrow

Friday will be the deadline for churches of Granite City to submit Christmas programs to the Press-Record for publication.

Pastors and church secretaries are asked to bring the programs to the newspaper office, 1815 Delmar Avenue. The early deadline is necessary since many churches will be presenting the children's programs on Dec. 18.

Publications of the Christmas services is an annual feature of the Press-Record.

Children's Services Increasing Statewide

The need for welfare services to dependent and neglected children in Illinois is at an all-time high, and child welfare agencies are entering a "real period of crisis," according to Cyril H. Winking, director of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services.

As an indication of the expanded need, Winking pointed out that the department's Division of Child Welfare is now providing direct service to nearly 10,000 children, a dramatic 13% increase since the agency was made a code department in 1964.

The department's child welfare division provides a wide range of family-centered services, including counseling to parents, protection of abused and neglected children, foster home and institutional placement, day care and adoption. It also licenses private and local public child welfare agencies and institutions.

An international team of archaeologists and metallurgists headed by Dr. Joseph R. Caldwell, head curator of anthropology at the Illinois State Museum, Springfield, has located what is probably the oldest wheat farming village in southeastern Iran.

Excavation of the mound of Talt-Ibilis in the Mashiz Valley of the Kerman Mountains 800 kilometers east of Baghdad and the Tigris River has revealed the ancient village, dated at about 5500 B.C. Preliminary study of pottery, tools and architecture from the lowest level in the mound indicates the importance of this archaeological discovery.

Findings of the team working with Dr. Caldwell have created a stir in anthropological circles, both here and abroad. Although limited, the excavation has ex-

Simple Steps May be Taken to Prevent Holiday Tragedy

With the Christmas season and its traditional flimsy decorations of paper, pine boughs and cotton comes an equally traditional fire hazard that is responsible for more deaths by fire during December than in any other month of the year.

Most of these tragedies result from careless or improper handling of lights, candles and other decorations used during the Yuletide season.

Elementary rules of personal safety and exercise of a few simple rules will prevent tragedy during the holiday season, according to the state department of public safety which has issued a series of hints to increase the margin of safety in every home.

Local fire chiefs are calling for cooperation with the state's recommendations.

Safe with Trees
A Christmas tree, the state division of fire prevention points out, is a beautiful and appealing part of the Christmas tradition, but it grows progressively more flammable every hour that it is kept in a heated room.

Needles shed and dry out very quickly. Shoppers, when purchasing a tree, should check the end of a branch. It is kept in a heated room. Needles shed and dry out very quickly. Shoppers, when purchasing a tree, should check the end of a branch. It is kept in a heated room.

Trees should be placed in water-filled containers. The tree, as a result, will stay green longer and be less flammable. It should be placed in a cool location, away from the fireplace, radiator or other heat. It should posed several buildings in the lowest and oldest level, one containing a mill for grinding wheat.

Evidence of copper smelting are scattered throughout the mound. Large quantities of excavated copper ores, slag, charcoal and simple crucibles are being studied by metallurgists. The findings indicate that a crude reduction process was used in this, the oldest copper industry yet found in the Middle East.

Cultural Renaissance?
Gov. Kerner, chief speaker at luncheon for a planning session on cultural activity during the Sequenquennial observance in Illinois in 1968, predicted that "the beginning of a cultural renaissance may be touched off by the observance."

It is interesting," he said, "that Chicago, at the heart of museums, including the Art Institute of Chicago, is greater every year than the attendance at our two major league baseball parks and our fine race tracks in the area, combined."

Gov. Kerner revealed that frequently top executives, contemplating expansion in Illinois, emphasize the need for cultural facilities in the communities into which they plan to move.

"Many times I have found them as interested in the availability of the intellectually stimulating and cultural university, an art museum, a theater program and possibilities for broad cultural experiences, as in the capacity of a local sewer system or the charge per kilowatt hour for electrical energy," he said.

Updating use of the Illinois-Michigan Canal lands to the best interests of the people of Illinois began recently with transfer of title to a parcel of land in LaSalle County from the State to the LaSalle County Historical Society.

The property consists of land and a sandstone building that was used as a collector's office and warehouse at Utica, Ill. The building was erected in 1848 alongside the canal and served as a commerce headquarters for traffic to Chicago and the Great Lakes.

In approving the title transfer, Gov. Kerner indicated his appreciation and respect for the very worthwhile efforts being put forth by the LaSalle County Historical Society toward the preservation and restoration of historical sites that are of interest to all the people of Illinois.

Services for Aged
Federal and state funds totaling $163,880 have been approved to establish or extend a broad range of services for aging persons in seven Illinois areas. An additional $56,121 was funded locally by the project sponsors.

The projects are not public assistance programs," Harold O. Swank, Illinois Department of Public Aid director, said. "They are for the benefit of all aging persons in the communities served."

never block stairways or a door.

Don't Use Candles
The chiefs joins forces to warn particularly against use of candles on a tree, a custom that has caused many fires and deaths in past years. Lighted cigarettes and open flames of all kinds should be kept away from the tree or other decorations. Trees should be taken down by New Year's Day, despite protests from the children. When the needles begin to fall off, it is time to get it out of the house.

Electric light sets should be examined before being placed on a tree to be certain that wiring and sockets are in good condition. For outside decorations, only lights and wiring made especially for use out of doors should be used. When fixtures are exposed to outside elements, there is danger of electrical shock as well as fire.

Metal Tree Precaution
Metal Christmas trees are becoming more popular each year, and while they are non-combustible, there is the potential danger of electric shock if lighting strings are used on the tree itself. Sharp metal edges may come in contact with cords and damage the insulation.

Frayed electric cords, in contact with electricity, will charge the entire tree with electricity. In addition, the safety council warned, the tips or edges of metal branches or tinsel may make contact with the lamp screw shells, rear terminal openings of lamp holders or even with broken bulbs.

Plastic and metalized trees are commercially available with and without lighting systems. Purchasers should require evidence that such trees are made of materials that burn slowly, or not at all. If they contain lighting systems, or are to be decorated with strings of lights, it is important to be sure that the branches will not conduct electricity unsafely.

Avoid Flammable Material
Use of flammable materials for decorating anywhere in the house should be avoided where possible. Use of untreated cotton baling or crepe paper at the base of a tree is a dangerous practice, according to the state department, which also pointed out that celluloid and certain plastics burn with a quick flash. Terrible tragedies have resulted from fires flaming across rooms and combustible hangings and ornaments.

Many lives also have been lost. It is pointed out, through the use of untreated cotton or paper costumes which ignite easily and burn with great intensity.

The average home, at Christmas time, also has an unusually large amount of wrapping paper, boxes, excelsior and other packing materials which burn like tinder. These should be removed as quickly as possible, but under no circumstances should they be stored near the furnace or heating unit.

In spite of all these precautions, fire still is possible. Therefore, everyone should know the location of the nearest fire alarm box and the fire department's telephone number.

Should a fire break out, the council warns, get the family out of the house first, then call the fire department.

130 Offenses Reported in GC Last Month

A total of 130 offenses were reported to Granite City police during November, 28 more than the same month a year ago but 10 fewer than in October, according to a report issued by Chief of Police Raymond J. Willard. Twenty-four were cleared as the detective bureau conducted 145 investigations and interviewed 362 persons. Types of offenses and the number cleared were: rape, one and one; robbery, one and one; aggravated assault, one and one; burglary, 39 and two; larceny over $50, 21 and one; larceny under $50, 43 and two; and stolen autos, 24 and two. Fifteen other miscellaneous cases were cleared.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Thurs., Dec. 8, 1966 Page 37

During the month the police department answered a total of 696 complaints. There were 294 arrests, and 312 charges were filed. Traffic accidents in November totaled 110, or 15 fewer than in October. There were two fatalities, 40 were hurt in 28 personal injury accidents and 80 of the mishaps involved property damage.

Safety Council Gives Advice—How to Go on Ice or Snow

"After making sure that your car's equipment is in good condition for winter driving, the next step for safe winter driving is to adjust your driving habits to cold weather conditions," the Quad-City Safety Council advises. "Remember, to get going on ice or snow you must start gently, otherwise you will spin your wheels, melt the ice and cut your traction in half. With a manual shift, start in second gear; with an automatic, start in 'Drive.' If your wheels start to spin, ease off on the gas. If the snow is deep, cut your wheels back and forth a few times to knock snow away from the front tires. Then drive straight out. If this does not get you going, try rocking the car back and forth. If your car is equipped with an automatic transmission, follow instruction in your owner's manual. "Since snow and ice make steering touchy, you must avoid abrupt changes in speed and direction. Remember, 'Easy Does It.' Get the feel of the road, slippery. Approach intersections with extra caution! Remember, the other driver will have the same trouble getting stopped that you do. Extend your distance while following another car when streets and roads are slippery. "Be sure your tires have good tread. Snow tires or tire chains will stop you more quickly than ordinary tires."

Zip Code Numbers

Will Speed Delivery

ZIP Code will help Santa and his helpers deliver Christmas presents this year.

Local postmasters today emphasized that the proper ZIP Code in the address will help assure on-time delivery of Christmas presents sent through the mail.

"Every Christmas several million of Santa's presents travel through the mails. In a great many instances, ZIP Code parcels travel by shorter routes and are handled fewer times because the wheels roll help postal clerks choose more direct transportation routes." Postmaster Overbeck of Granite City said. "This means there is less chance for damage to the gifts because they are handled fewer times."

ZIP Codes often help deliver a package that otherwise would be sent to the dead parcel office because the address can't be read. "There is nothing more unpleasant for postal employees than not being able to deliver a Christmas package and knowing that some youngster won't receive the gift because the address was illegible," Postmaster Overbeck said.

"The key to the best possible postal service is ZIP Code. If you don't have the ZIP Code for any addresses on your mailing list, they can be obtained through the Post Office."

November Meter Fees Hit Highest Point in 5 Years

Parking meter fees and fines collected in Granite City during November totaled $4893, the largest parking meter income for any one single month since August 1961, according to a report by Controller Robert Stevens. Collections from meters last month amounted to $4003, which represented the largest monthly fee collection since May 1960, when $4106 was collected. Fines collected in November totaled $690 to make the total income figure of $4693.

The total November collection of both fines and fees was $444 higher than the total of $389 collected in October, and $475 higher than the total of $4218 received in November 1965.

Last month's total was exceeded only by the August 1961 collection of $5189 made up of $3881 in fees and $1288 in fines. The collection of fees was exceeded previously in May 1960, when fee collections amounted to $4106. Fine collections for that month, however, totaled only $310 for a total monthly income of $4416.

The November collections represented the fourth month of the year in which income from parking meters has exceeded $4500. In March the city received $5339 in fees and $969 in fines for a total of $4368.

May Collections High
May collections this year included $3799 in fees and $722 in fines for a total of $4521. August collections closely approached those of last month. They amounted to $3799 in fees and $822 in fines for a total of $4621.

The November income increased to $45,339 the total amount of fines and fees received by the city thus far this year, an increase of $5009 over 1965.

Savings Bonds can Solve Christmas Gift Problems

"When you make up your Christmas gift list, don't overlook U.S. Savings Bonds. They're better than ever this year," according to Henry D. Karandjeff, volunteer Madison county bond chairman.

"Savings Bonds now pay interest at the rate of 4.15% when they are held to maturity—and they mature in just seven years," Karandjeff pointed out.

"I can't think of a better gift for our loved ones," he said. "Not only do Bonds 'keep on giving' over the years, but they help support our men fighting in Vietnam."

"When you buy Bonds," Karandjeff added, "you also solve your gift-wrap problem. Attractive gift envelopes are again available at your Bank. They are easy to mail, and can be slipped into a Christmas card envelope or tucked into a Christmas stocking."

Karandjeff is chairman of the Granite City Trust and Savings and American National banks.

13-Night Labor Union Course Planned at WU

A new evening course on "Understanding Labor Unions" will be offered in the spring semester beginning Feb. 1 and ending May 8 in cooperation with the Education of Washington University's School of Engineering and Applied Science. It was announced this week.

The class will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. for 13 Wednesday evenings beginning Feb. 1 and ending May 8 in cooperation with the Small Business Administration, the Chamber of Commerce of St. Louis and the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

The course is aimed at developing an understanding of today's sophisticated labor organization and its operation in society. Lectures and discussions will deal with factors influencing the development of unions, the internal organization and programs of labor unions, and the administration and application of the contract within the framework of the federal labor laws.

Dr. Gerald Esterson, director of the Institute for Continuing Education, said the course will be of interest to engineering and scientific or engineering executive personnel who have or expect to have responsibility for some operational or negotiating relationships with unions.

Further information may be obtained by writing the Institute for Continuing Education, Box 148, Washington University, 63130, or by calling VO 3-0100, extension 477.

City Bills, Payroll Total $97,552

A $54,587 bill list and a half-month payroll amounting to $42,965 were approved Monday night by Granite City council members, who removed two other bills for review.

Payment was held up to A. H. Seibold Co. for the street car track removal project on Adams street after Aldermen Poulos complained there were several holes in the new roadway. The amount was $3145. Approval was given for payment of $2554 to Seibold for track removal on Washington avenue and on Nidringhaus avenue and $10,754 for improvement work on East 25th street, West 21st street and Twenty-third street.

Another payment for road work, paid from motor fuel tax funds, was $11,000 to the county for estimate No. 3 on the Maryville road improvement project.

The other item removed from the bill list was $30 billed by Bellemore Animal Hospital for services required for a dog at the animal shelter. Alderman Bartosiak called for a study to determine if the city is paying for special care for stray animals.

Air Raid Sirens

Major items of expense included on the listing were $17,280 paid to R. Dron Electrical Co. for installation of seven air raid sirens in the city, based on a bid of $21,334; $910 to Amoco Plumbing and Heating Co. for installing a gas conversion burner at the Nameoki road fire station; $115 paid to Biltmore Moving & Storage Co. for removal of equipment from the police shooting range, which is to be razed for Federal Aid Route 151; Erwin Hoelscher, the city's acting technical secretary for the Air Pollution Control Board, was paid $255 for services in October; and the city's payment to the Illinois Municipal Retirement fund for November amounted to $4921.

Illinois Power Co. was paid $2005 for electric service in November, and East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. was paid $1533 for November rental on 372 fire hydrants.

Jesse Tree in Narthex at Hope Lutheran Church

Mrs. Phillip Hogan of Hope Lutheran Church recently completed a "Jesse Tree" for display in the narthex of the church. The tree appears as it would look by Christmas day with all symbols in place.

Rev. Alfred Bul, pastor, explained the Jesse Tree is a small tree decorated with symbols portraying the spiritual heritage of Jesus.

"It is a kind of family tree which was suggested by Isaiah's prophecy 'There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesus.'"

"The four weeks preceding Christmas have been used for centuries by Christians as a period of preparation for the festival and have been designated as Advent. The Advent wreath, with four candles to be lighted on the four Sundays is one of the aids to worship in the home and often is to be found in sanctuaries. The Advent calendar, with a new symbol opened each day before Christmas is another," Rev. Buls said.

JC's Seek Nominees For 1966 Award

The Granite City Jaycees are seeking nominations for the 1966 distinguished service award recipient to be honored at the annual awards banquet to be held Jan. 25, 1967. Last year's winner was William Thoele, owner and manager of the Chain of Rocks Motel.

Young men 21-35 years old are eligible and may be nominated by clubs, groups or individuals for outstanding achievements, leadership and community service during 1966.

Roger Ward is the DSA chairman, and nomination forms may be obtained from any Jaycee member. Deadline for filing is midnight, Jan. 15, 1967.

How to Control Silverfish

When you go to the attic to dig out your boxes of Christmas tree ornaments, you may find that you are evicting a whole colony of small silverfish.

These are silverfish. And they live in boxes stored in basements and attics. They eat the paper used for packing, and if there is rayon or starched clothing in the boxes or books, old rolls of wallpaper or magazines — they'll eat them too.

To prevent silverfish, spray with a 2% chlordane solution. Spray not only the boxes used for storage, but the shelves, crates or other hiding places as well.

If silverfish are a problem elsewhere in your home, apply chlordane with a paintbrush wherever you see them—usually on floors, around baseboards, door and window casings, in closets and places where pipes go through walls or floors.

Be sure to read and follow carefully all instructions given on the label on the chlordane container.

Silverfish can also be controlled by placing baits in these storage areas.

Be Prepared for Holiday "Drop-Ins"

Welcome guests with a "Hospitality table." The very word hospitality has an easy charm. It implies a spontaneous welcome which is in no way dependent upon elaborate fixings or lengthy preparation. This is the sort of gracious atmosphere every home-maker wants to create during the holidays when friends drop in. And it is simple enough, from the standpoints of both time and money.

For your "hospitality center" use the dining table or a large table in the living room. Start early in the day to set it with holiday linens, cake plates, egg-nog bowl or coffee server and cups, and your prettiest silver. Bring out the fruit cake. Everything is ready, and all that remains to do later is serve the egg-nog at a moment's notice. Even this can be prepared well ahead and brought to the table as needed. Everyone will enjoy this casual but warm welcome, ready and waiting.

Christmas tablecloths are so dramatic these days that little decorative assistance is needed from other props. Even the most elaborate designs are intended for the washing machine, so use them often with an easy conscience. Choose red or green napkins for a white cloth, or pale pink napkins with a gold cloth for a more sophisticated approach. Add a tiered stand to hold small goodies, or a single silver or crystal candelabrum for a pretty glow. Or your piece to resistance might be a silver bowl of fresh fruit, combining the reds and greens of apples, grapes, and cranberries.

Holiday-design china — it may be plastic, of course—is inexpensive and serves a decorative as well as utilitarian purpose. Be sure to choose tablecloth and plates or punch bowl set with regard to their motifs and colors, in order to make the table appear as a harmonious picture.

You will naturally expect to use your holiday table settings and appointments for many years to come, so treat them with due care. Examine cloth and napkins for stains immediately after the last guest has gone, and treat them right away. Then general laundering in warm soap or detergent suds can wait for tomorrow.

IPC Relocating Gas Lines for FA Rte. 151

Four excavation permits—three to allow Illinois Power Co. to relocate utility lines for the Federal Aid Route 151 right-of-way through West Granite—were approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

The power company will excavate at West 20th and Poplar streets, on Denver street at McCasland avenue and along Union street from Denver to West 20th street.

The other permit was for relocation of a gas line and placing it in the alley between Madison and Grand avenues for 20th to 21st street.

The Bullseye Lantern

By John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University

An occasional discarded object found lying about an abandoned building at a deserted farmstead suggests an interesting story, at least an assortment of memories. A find of this kind was made recently. This remnant of a lantern so eaten by rust that it would hardly hold together was found in a tumble-down shed beside an abandoned and equally decrepit smokehouse.

With one exception this rusty remnant is like the parts of other hand borne lanterns one finds. This one's distinguishing feature was its bullseye globe, that is one side of the globe had a lens cast in it. In use, this lens was turned in toward the direction in which the carrier was going. It thus cast a more concentrated beam to guide the walker. In long ago and more youthful days lanterns of this type were used in the hunting of particular nocturnal prowling varmints. Perhaps it was not at first classed as a varmint, a name generally used to indicate those animals that preyed upon the farmer's barnyard fowl and livestock.

Arakun-Raccoon
In the language of the Algonquin Indian, the animal was an

"arakun," meaning an animal that scratched trees with its hands. White men dropped the first letter of the Indian name and called it raccoon. In common speech this word was shortened to the more simple one of coon. If one wants to be more formal and exact he may give this beaver-like American relative of the Asiatic panda and the Latin name of Procyon lotor.

Whatever the name used, the sharp-faced, black masked, wide-eyed, furry and ringtailed animal was in reasonably plentiful supply. Indians sought and used its pelt to make cloak-like outer garments. When white men came, they found a similar use for it and also shipped bales of it to Europe. When colleges of the Ivy League type grew up the college lads sought status by wearing coonskin coats.

Pioneer men and boys alike had their coonskin caps. Like the fur of the beaver, coonskins served somewhat like a currency of lesser value. It was not unusual to hear someone say, "I'll bet you a coonskin," or "It's not worth a summer coonskin."

Because these furs were adaptable to a wide territory and brought a fair cash return, many a woodland settler turned them into a kind of cash crop. These hunters and trappers sought the fur in late fall and early winter after it had become prime, also at the time when the severity of the coming winter was to be discovered by the thickness of the coon's fur. Coon hunting was a major sport and in a modest way, one of reasonable profit. Over-hunting shortly brought coons in short supply. Furriers became easier to procure. The trapping of coons lessened but never did entirely vanish.

It was about this time when the writer first became a struggling, struggling ten-year-old appendage to his first coon hunting party. He remembers the long trips through the deep woods, with an occasional stop beside a kindled fire while the dogs worked the woodland. These, somehow, occurred near some farmer's backfield turnip patch or not too far from a rusty coat apple tree whose fruit hangings among the grass kept well until severe freezing came. In the absence of either turnips or apples a persimmon tree was helpful. There also is the memory of being utterly lost in the deep woods, a time when it often was easier to turn the lantern out and navigate by the stars.

The jargon of coon hunters also is remembered. There were blue ticks, red bone, black and tan hounds, and other hunting dogs of questionable ancestry. Many of these were skilled in administering the coup de grace to large coons. Some of these grizzled veterans bore evidence of their apprenticeship days in their slitted ears and scarred faces. Coon hounds also are remembered as somewhat large dogs, weighing as much as 70 or 80 pounds. The largest coon remembered weighed 31 pounds, a rather large bundle of fury when in combat. Some deadly combats are remembered, none however where the coon killed its attacker. The bested hound could take flight.

Hounds are remembered that followed a cold trail and cried back to the hunters that it was a cold trail. In turn these same dogs told when the trail became "hot." They left no mistake when they "tread." There were full mouth hounds, and those that chopped.

Again Plentiful
With decline in the price of coon pelts and lessened demand for them, coons have established a definite comeback. They are again in plentiful supply. There now are a hundred coon hunting associations. The COONER, official organ of American Coon Hunters' Association is published at Sesser. So far as is known this is the only magazine of national circulation published in Southern Illinois. Coon hunting again is in full swing. The writer wishes that someone would invite him to go coon hunting again, the last such venture was about sixty years ago, more than a coon's age. He'd like once more to tramp, not too far please, through the wood at night and hear the baying of good hounds, and perhaps see another hound get scratched by a valiant old "arakun."

And why not take along a bullseye lantern like the one Jim Stevens, Charley Ghoshons, Homer Pemberton and I carried on a memorable November night when Jim Shot out two tree coons each of which hit the ground with a lot of light left.

Jaycees Hospital Yule Party For Children to be Dec. 22

Three Radar Arrests

Three drivers were arrested on speeding charges Monday as police operated a radar unit along Madison avenue. Summoned for hearings by Dec. 20 were Charles L. Burns, 1831 Edwardsville road; Earl Alvin Meyers, Jennings, Mo., and Leon N. Amp, 4933 Redwood lane.

—GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY—

It happens only once a year, but so does Christmas; and youngsters confined at St. Elizabeth Hospital will have a brief respite from their illness when the Granite City Jaycees hold their annual children's party Dec. 22 in the pediatrics ward.

During the event, the hospital which is used for examination of the intestines, will be made by the Jaycees at a cost of $80. Part of the money is expected to be raised through the "Bowling Sweepstakes" now being held at local alleys through Dec. 9. The remainder will be contributed from the club's general fund, accumulated through many other Jaycee projects.

Men who travel the downhill trail will never rise to fame.

Local Servicemen in Vietnam Write Thanks to Amvets 51

Extreme gratitude was expressed in articulate letters received from three local servicemen, presently in combat in Vietnam, which acknowledged packages sent to them by Amvets Post 51 and Auxiliary.

In one instance, the local veteran's organization and women's group were awarded honorary memberships in Company B, 2nd Airborne Battalion of the 101st Airborne Division.

Parcels containing instant soup mixes, soft drink mix, soap, playing cards, cans of peanuts and canned sausages, and other items sent by the local veteran's group proved highly acceptable to the servicemen as noted in the thank you letters.

He added, "Please accept the thanks of the 46 men of the First platoon, Bravo Company, Second Battalion of the 327th Airborne Infantry for your kind and generous act. I am including a small taken of our thanks, an honorary membership to our company for your post and hope that in some small way this expresses our appreciation for all that you have done."

Helpful for Others
Pvt. Richard E. Cobb, who is stationed at Cam Ranh Bay with A. Battery, 8th Battalion, 71st Infantry, wrote, "I am really without words to express my gratitude. I only hope that every GI over here could receive the same amount of thought and consideration you have been good enough to show to me."

"I know quite a bit about the Amvets organization due to the fact my parents have been members for some time. When I was small, I used to accompany them to meetings and get-togethers and really enjoyed myself," the soldier continued.

Pvt. Cobb went on to describe the role he plays as a launcher crewman with a Hawk missile unit. "You've probably heard about President Johnson visiting here," he commented. "It is my job to see the missiles are armed and ready to be fired, if it ever becomes necessary. As yet, a Hawk has never been fired to destroy enemy aircraft which is its primary objective here in Vietnam. It is only a small missile, but it is the Army's best medium altitude missile and I am proud to be with such a unit."

The serviceman explained, "Each man is specially trained to the point he is an expert before coming over here to a situation as we have in Vietnam. This is why there is no doubt in my mind that we will win over the Viet Cong, but there will be many tears shed for all those who died so that the Vietnamese people can live without fear of communistic rule."

Feelings Toward Vietnamese
Pvt. Cobb continued, "The Vietnamese people are really good natured and very industrious. Get rid of communism here and you will definitely see a new Vietnam rise, plus possibly forcing stopping the spread of communism to other underdeveloped countries."

Specialist Fourth Class Larry N. Thomas commented that he received the package in the field after he had moved from a base camp. "It couldn't have come at a better time," he said.

"We were out about four days and nothing was straightened away yet. We weren't getting our food rations and we were having a hard time even getting water. The next day we started to get water regularly and I passed out the contents of your parcel to the whole battery," the soldier reported, adding "there was almost enough to give us one item to each man. The whole battery thanks you for your generous deed."

Sgt. Thomas, who is with B Battery, Sixth Battalion, 28th Artillery, in Vietnam, wrote, "We have a real fighting group and thanks to you all, you have helped to keep the morale up so we can keep it fighting. The way we all work well together. I think we will be back in the U. S. in no time."

Six-Mile Delivery
"I took your package six days to get here. I'm sorry it took me longer to answer, but we've been a little busy. Thank you very much and God bless you all," the soldier concluded.

All three servicemen are graduates of Granite City high school. Sgt. Thomas, 21, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas, 2145 Lee avenue, is married to the former Miss Virginia Heaton.

Pfc. Cobb, 19, a 1964 GCHS graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cobb, 1694 Sycamore avenue.

Lt. Ples, a son of Mrs. Jeanne Reimund of Granite City, recently was nominated for the Bronze Star Medal for valor in action against the enemy and was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant.

A 1961 GCHS graduate, he enlisted in the Army in March 1963 and completed OCS at Fort Benning, Ga., in October 1965. He has been assigned in Vietnam since June 28.

Amvets Post 51 officials submitted the letters to the Press-Record to emphasize the gratitude expressed by servicemen, who receive parcels from relatives, individuals or organizations.

Officers commented on the recent apathy shown by the general public in answering an appeal made by the Disabled American Veteran's Auxiliary for donation of small items and cookies to be included in parcels being sent by the group to servicemen in Vietnam. "If you could publish one of these letters," Steve Konkovich, Amvets official said, "maybe it will show how much these soldiers do care and appreciate such thoughtfulness."

Special Zoning Proposed for Beauty Shop

A special amendment to the city zoning code to permit location of a beauty shop in a residence at 2419 Lincoln avenue was proposed during Monday night's Granite City council session by Alderman Whitmer.

Whitmer said the council has reversed a denial by the City Plan Commission, but that the petitioners, Alex and Eleanor Allen, have been unable to get a permit from the city building inspector.

He noted there were other commercial enterprises in the block—a tavern and a cabinet shop—and that the council could amend the zoning code for a C-1 commercial designation for the 2419 Lincoln avenue address.

"I'd like for the designation to be limited to a beauty shop and that if the shop should close, it would revert to a residential classification."

Several aldermen voiced protests that such an amendment was not legal in that a C-1 classification covers many other commercial establishments. Bass, rich termed it as spot zoning. Other aldermen expressed views that the city zoning code could be amended to take care of such situations.

It is hoped the problem with the zoning code will be solved when Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Plan Commission completes its review of the code. A special use permit would not be applicable in this instance, it was pointed out, since the residence is not on a major four-lane street, and the special use classification is for professional offices and does not include beauty shops.

Council members approved five variations in side property lines as approved by the Zoning Appeals Board recently. The variations for construction of garages, carports and an addition to a home were approved for the following:

Mrs. Agnes Lindsay, 1636 Delmar avenue, variation for construction of a carport within two feet from the side property line in an R-5 multiple family district.

Ernest Fehrman, 3107 Rodger avenue, a zoning variation to within five feet of the side property line to build a room addition and storage area in an R-2 single family district.

Cleveland Smith, 3001 National avenue, variation to within two feet of side property line for construction of an attached garage in an R-2 single family district.

Henry Kief, 2377 Sunset drive, variation for a carport to within five feet of the side property line in an R-2 single family district.

James Jeffries, 2677 Center street, variation to within two feet of the side property line for construction of a two-car garage in an R-2 single family district.

"Stop-Search" Bill Prefiled in Senate

A "stop and search" bill that would authorize police officers in Illinois to question and search persons whom they reasonably suspect of having committed a crime or about to commit one is among legislation prefiled at Springfield for action by the General Assembly after it convenes Jan. 4.

It would permit police officers to stop persons and search them for weapons if there is belief the officer might be attacked. The bill was filed by State Senator W. Russell Arrington, Republican of Evanston, who also filed a companion bill that would amend the criminal code to classify an attack upon a fireman while he was doing his job as aggravated assault.

A bill permitting officers to stop and search suspicious persons was passed by the General Assembly in 1965, but the measure was vetoed by Gov. Otto Kerner who said he believed it would be unconstitutional.

Final Christmas Art Show Held--21-Year Run

The annual "Christmas Art and Packaging Show" which began 21 years ago for a meager audience of 43 persons and in recent years has been attracting yearly attendance of more than 1000 persons was presented Monday night—for the last time—by the Art Department of Granite City high school.

Growing popularity of the event is, in fact, the principal reason for abandoning it, according to Eugene Alassi, art director for the school system. The show has attracted so much attention during the Christmas season of each year, he said, that students are concentrating their attention on the one seasonal event rather than a diversified, year-around program.

Monday night's show was presented for an estimated 1000 persons, but approximately 1300 were on hand. As a result, some of them were turned away. The theme of the show this year was "3-D Styrofoam Carvings," a display of centerpieces and other items made by art students. The shows during past years have centered around all types of Christmas wrappings and decorating ideas.

Alassi said several factors entered into his decision to discontinue the shows. One of these is loss of his source of evergreens used for decorative purposes. But most important, he pointed out, is the tendency of art students to devote practically all of their projects to the single, seasonal exhibits.

Students will continue to make art displays and exhibits of year-around seasonal objects, with emphasis on the spring "Acre of Art" show.

Fluoridation to be Part of Water Co. Franchise Talks

Fluoridation of the city's water supply will be included in the next meeting of city officials and the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. It was reported Monday night by Alderman Ford Johnson, who said the franchise talks were revived last week. Johnson said the initial meeting was "round-robin" and that the next session will be held on Dec. 14.

An inquiry on the status of water fluoridation, voted by the council several years ago, was made by Alderman Clyde Boyd. "I just want to know where it stands, and some people have been asking me about it," he added. "I was told that the company operates a single system that that Belleville and Swansea are the holdouts."

Several aldermen commented that the water company must have some way of separating its operations for the municipalities, since the phenol complaints of three weeks ago came from only the Quad-Cities area and not from the Belleville or East St. Louis areas.

Johnson indicated he would ask water company officials what

GC Council Takes Action on Traffic Control Measures

"One-way" and "Do Not Enter" signs are to be posted on Wabash avenue at Amos avenue and at Pontoon road, where the street department is completing work on the boulevard.

The request was made by Alderman Thompson during Monday night's council session. He said motorists are used to the former narrow, two-way street and are traveling in both directions on both roadways for the one-block distance.

Council members referred to the Traffic Study Commission a request from the Nameoki school PTA for a study to eliminate a hazardous condition created by a traffic turn signal at Pontoon road. The study was completed by the street department on the temporary roadway for the extension of Mayville road from the new Parkway school to Stratford lane and on the slag walk along Worthen Park near the school.

200 Youngsters Daily

In a letter from Eugene Monahan, president of the Nameoki school PTA, it was pointed out that between 200 and 250 children could be done and to include fluoridation in the franchise terms.

cross the busy Pontoon-Nameoki road intersection each day.

The PTA praised the work of the crossing guard and asked for his retention on a permanent basis, but added that no provisions have been made for a separate walk light or for an all-stop to permit the youngsters to cross.

Thompson said the city has requested a pedestrian light installation at the intersection, and the request has been forwarded to the state highway department.

The PTA also is seeking a crushed rock or slag walk along the south side of West Pontoon road from the tracks to Nameoki road to keep youngsters out of the street and out of mud. The request was referred to the Street committee.

Supt. Streets Warfield reported that work has been completed by the street department on the temporary roadway for the extension of Mayville road from the new Parkway school to Stratford lane and on the slag walk along Worthen Park near the school.

Referred to the Street committee and the First Ward alderman was notification that the Terminal Railroad Association and Granite City Steel Co. plan an additional railroad spur track across Edwardsville road at 19th street.

Council to Decide

The matter now is before the Illinois Commerce Commission. City Atty. Allen advised the council there are four sets of tracks at the crossing now, and that the city has never turned down such a request. "It's a matter for the council to decide," the attorney said.

The city was notified by the Illinois Commerce Commission that it has adopted a resolution for the pedestrian walk lights located on Madison avenue at 16th street for Granite City Steel Co. employees is to be synchronized with the railroad crossing flasher lights just 75 feet to the north.

The pedestrian walk light has confused motorists approaching the rail crossing and crosswalk. The request was referred to the Street and Police committees.

Alderman Basarich called for preparation of an ordinance to remove the one-way restriction in the 1600 block of Maple street.

He said residents have petitioned for the return of two-way traffic and the Traffic Study Commission has given its approval.

Yield Signs, No-Parking

Ordinances approved by the council are: No-parking zones on the north side of 23rd street between Washington and Lee avenues; on both sides along 18th street between Cleveland and Nidringhaus avenues, and a 50-foot zone on the east side of Adams street south of 21st street.

Removal of a no-parking restriction on the south side of the 2700 block of Edwards street.

Yield right-of-way signs are to be placed on Joy avenue at Myrtle avenue, on Carlson avenue at Myrtle avenue and on Rodger avenue at Carlson avenue.

Placed on first reading was an ordinance to relocate stop signs at Edgewood drive and Willow avenue, taking the stops off Edgewood and placing them on Willow. Alderman Fry said he and Alderman Parmley have received several objections to the change, recommended by the Traffic Commission, based on a study of traffic flows.

Boy Scout District to Begin New Year Tonight

Operating committees for 1967 will be formed as the Uniwah Boy Scout district reorganizes for the year at a monthly district meeting at 7:30 tonight in the Illinois Power Co. office, Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues.

A film of "District Operation" will be shown to explain the scouting structure in the Quad-City area. Highlights of the meeting will include a preview of the national theme for the coming year, "Scouting rounds a guy out."

Committees to be organized include: ramping, activities, organization and extension, leadership training, health and safety, advancement and finance. Attending will be district members-at-large and institutional representatives.

2nd Annual Interact Paper Drive Saturday

The Rotary-sponsored Interact club of Granite City will conduct its second annual paper drive Saturday. President Raymond O'Beir announced this week. Papers may be taken Saturday to St. John's United Church of Christ, 2801 Nameoki road. Telephone numbers for the boys' club's pickup service are TR 7-2386 and TR 6-8071.

Illinois Board Approves Junior College District

The Illinois Board of Higher Education, meeting in Chicago Monday afternoon, approved petitions for the creation of the Lewis & Clark junior college district which will include all of Madison county.

The action will be followed by orders from the Illinois Junior College Board to Madison County School Supt. Wilbur R. L. Trimpe to schedule a public hearing on the proposal. Trimpe said he already has tentatively set the hearing for Jan. 5 in Edwardsville.

Testimony presented in the public hearing will be referred back to the junior college board which, if it feels the testimony so justifies, may then order Trimpe to arrange an election throughout the four-county district which would consist of all of Madison and Jersey counties, most of Calhoun county and the southern half of Macoupin county.

Petitions for creation of the district were filed a month ago with the Illinois Junior College Board by Trimpe and members of a Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus study committee that recommended establishment of the district and fixed the boundaries of the proposed district.

The study said a junior college in the Madison county area would begin operation with a minimum of 1000 students and would jump to 9000 students in five years.

Moose Members to Ring Kettle Bells in Drive

Members of Moose Lodge 272 will ring bells for the Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" Kettles all day Saturday, Clarence Meyersburg, Moose lodge Civic Affairs chairman announced today.

The kettles will be located at 19th street and Edison avenue and in Nameoki Village shopping center.

Lodge members and Women of the Moose Chapter 247 will be at strategic locations with small Salvation Army canisters throughout the Quad-City area.

During a recent meeting the lodge approved a donation of $25 for the "Tree of Lights" campaign.

of junior college districts. Trimpe would be in full charge of calling and conducting such an election. He said preliminary plans considered for such an election call for use of school buildings as polling places to eliminate rental cost for polling places, and for volunteer workers to serve as judges and clerks of election, also eliminating this cost.

The SIU study recommended sites for three proposed junior college campuses to be located near Granite City, near Alton and between Collinsville and Highland.

The study said the proposed district would have an assessed valuation of approximately $1,122 millions. It proposes a total site building cost of $11,500,000 for the first five years of the program. Of this building and site cost, however, approximately 75% would be borne by the state.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Dec. 8, 1966 Page 55

Mrs. Olga M. Keel, 50, Dies Unexpectedly
Mrs. Olga M. Keel, 50, of 320 West Johnson street, Collinsville, the wife of a Granite City Steel Co. employee, suffered an apparent heart attack at 7:30 a.m. yesterday, shortly after leaving home for work. She was taken by ambulance to Belleville Memorial Hospital, where she was pronounced dead on arrival. An inquest is pending.

Mrs. Keel, who had been employed as a clerk-typist at Scott Air Force Base since 1954, was walking from her home to a nearby intersection when she suddenly collapsed. Co-workers with whom she rode each day to the base found her lying on the sidewalk and summoned aid. She had been in apparent good health, a family spokesman said.

Born in Belleville, Mrs. Keel had resided in Collinsville for 32 years. She was a member of Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Collinsville.

She is survived by her husband, Maurice J. Keel, who is employed as a car dumper in the raw material department of the local plant; one son, William R. Keel, a chemistry teacher at Belleville Junior College; her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bonnie Keel of Belleville; one sister, Miss Norma Niebrugge of Caseyville; and five grandchildren. A brother, Clarence Niebrugge, preceded her in death.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Man Pleads Innocent To Two Charges
Robert R. Lindsey, 31, of 2100 Glen drive, pleaded not guilty to charges of unlawful use of a weapon and disorderly conduct Monday in magistrate court and was released on his own recognizance to enter a veterans hospital.

He is to return for a hearing after his release from the hospital. He was arrested at 9:45 p.m. Sunday in a disturbance in the 2500 block of Hodges avenue where police confiscated 16-gauge shot gun.
